FEAR WESTERLY WINDS WILL REVIVE DANGERS IN ISLAND FIRE ZONE

General Situation in British Columbia Reported Worse as Winds Increased on the Mainland—Crew Fights New Blaze Near Bevan—60,000-Acre Burning Along Beaver Lake Checked

VANCOUVER, July 28 (CP).—The forest fire situation through British Columbia took a turn for the worse today as winds increased and humidity remained low. Attention of fire fighters at the Vancouver Island blaze near Campbell River concentrated on green timber at the edge of Forbidden Plateau as forecasts for strong westerly winds were reported.

Meanwhile an extra crew and pump were rushed to the coal mining town of Bevan in the Island fire zone to battle a spot fire within a mile of the community. The new blaze covered two acres and forest officials said west winds would whip it into the town.

In the Similkameen district of Southern British Columbia 500 men in scattered groups fought blazes which, officials said, constituted the most serious situation in recent years.

PLANT CLOSED DOWN

Granby Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company operation at Copper Mountain near Princeton was idle as its crew of 400 aided by forest fire fighters battled a hot blaze that licked through 300 acres of tinder dry jack pine. The flames were within three miles of the camp.

An emergency call said the Coquihalla fire was surging into the narrow Bear Creek Valley, 120 miles

CRITICIZED BY NATIONAL UNION

Manufacturers in England Denounces Agreement With Australia

LONDON, July 28 (CP).—The National Union of Manufacturers today wrote the Board of Trade, denouncing the Government's trade agreement with Australia which continues the United Kingdom-Australia agreement for the present. The original agreement was arrived at during the 1932 Ottawa Economic Conference.

The union's letter declared:

"In dealing with the Dominions and India on matters of trade, this country appears to suffer from an inferiority complex.

"The net result of the discussions (with Australian Cabinet ministers) appears to be that the one-sided Ottawa agreement which admits Australian goods to this market free of duty, but allows Australia to charge such duties as she thinks fit on United Kingdom goods is to remain for the present in force with the exception that a safeguard inserted into that agreement for the protection of United Kingdom industry now is to be treated as a dead letter.

WANT FAIR POLICY

"It is to be hoped that, while the Australian ministers are reviewing the position of their secondary industries, the Board of Trade will review the position of the United Kingdom industries engaged in export trade; that they will, with the assistance of some men of business experience, endeavor to formulate a trade policy that will be fair to this country as well as to the Dominions; and that they will associate some men of business experience with official representatives in any discussions or negotiations that take place in the future."

Rainfall Causes Extensive Damage

BOSTON, July 28 (AP).—A violent rainfall, centring in New Hampshire, tonight washed out both tracks of the main Boston-Montreal railroad line, tore gaping holes in heavily-traveled highways, caused unestimated damage to crops and disrupted communications. BOMBS POUND BATTLE LINE

New Defences of Chinese Subjected to Terrific Barrage From Air

SHANGHAI, July 29 (AP). — Two columns of Japanese infantrymen, struggling to keep pace with Japanese marines in their drive up the Yangtze toward Hankow, were engaged today in a broad movement to flank the Chinese line at the Tienklachen-Wusueh boom.

Meanwhile, Japanese planes continued terrific bombardments of the new line of defence, centred on the submerged Yangtze barricade upriver from fallen Kiukiang and about 110 miles from Hankow.

The big bombers assaulted a railroad running from Kiukiang, ninety miles south, to the principal Chinese air base, Nanchang. Part of the railway parallels the Chinese line. The airmen also attacked the Canton-Hankow Railway, a defence "lifeline" for the cluster of Wuhan cities—Hankow, Wuchang and Hanyang.

MISSION DAMAGED

(The United States Consulate General at Hankow was informed that mission property of the Reformed Church in the United States was slightly damaged Wednesday in an aerial bombardment of Yochow, Hunan Province.

(The Hankow report said American missionaries at Yochow escaped injury, but many Chinese were killed when a railway station and many houses were struck. Yochow is about 100 miles southeast of Hankow.)

The Japanese reported capture of Taihu, about fifty miles north of Kiukiang, in one phase of the overland drive to flank the Chinese line at Wusueh and Tienkiachen. The Chinese declared they were counter attacking at Taihu.

Seattle Has B.C. Premier At Potlatch

SEATTLE, July 28 (AP).—Premier T. D. Pattullo of British Columbia, arrived today to participate in Seattle's civic celebration, the "Potlatch of Progress."

"I bring the felicitations of British Columbia and I am glad to join you on this occasion," he told a gathering.

Mr. Pattullo was welcomed at the border by Mayor B. E. Hanning, of Bellingham, and Gerald W. Gannon, Chamber of Commerce president, and a Seattle delegation. He was taken to Bellingham city jail, "booked" as a joke, and then introduced to city officials today.

Where Fire Caused Loss of $1,200,000

The above photograph shows fire completing destruction of Canadian Pacific Railway Company's Pier "D" at Vancouver, on Wednesday afternoon. The picture was taken shortly after the roof and top decks of the pier collapsed. Administration offices of the B.C. Coast Steamship Service were located in the shore end of the pier, shown at the left of the photograph. A fire tug is seen standing by the lumber wharf in the foreground.

Five Dashed to Death as Runaway Hoist Plunges To Bottom of Mine Shaft

Young Engineers Lose Lives at Borlamague, Quebec, When Machinery Goes Out of Control—Cage Drops 700 Feet to Wood and Concrete Bulkhead—Superintendent Saved

BORLAMAGUE, Que., July 28 (CP).—Shattered bodies of five young mining engineers who plummeted to death in a runaway hoist cage in the Lamaque Mining Company's No. 7 shaft today rested in a mortuary here tonight.

The hoist cage plunged 700 feet into the depths of one of Quebec's largest gold mines and dashed itself to pieces on a wood and concrete bulkhead, killing four instantly and fatally injuring a fifth.

PLUNGE UNCONTROLLED

A jury under Coroner Joseph Ion held an inquest and found—verdict of accidental death. Hoistman J. W. MacDonald testified he was unable to control the mad descent of the cage, which a short time before had safely lowered eleven loads of miners to their day's work deep under the surface.

Killed instantly were Peter Downey, twenty-four, Gleichen, Alta.; James J. Crocker, twenty-three, Toronto; Arthur M. Hewat, thirty-two, Halifax, and Harry Field, thirty-two, Bourlamaque. Lying in the shattered wreckage with the

HEPBURN PARTY LEAVING NORTH

Premier's Plane Tour Interrupted by Forced Landing at Carcross

SKAGWAY, Alaska, July 28 (AP).—Declaring himself "fussed because of all this fuss," Premier Hepburn of Ontario arrived late today from Carcross, Y.T., by train, after twenty-four hours in which anxiety was felt for his safety.

"I do not care for any more publicity," he said at the depot.

"I will have nothing to do with an international hook-up. We were never lost. There was no cause for all this fuss."

MAY FLY AGAIN

Hepburn arrived with Bernard E. Smith, New York City broker, and there was a possibility they would fly to Juneau in a specially chartered plane piloted by Sheldon Simmons. Simmons broke through bad weather to fly broadcasting apparatus here.

Hepburn's 8,000-mile aerial inspection trip was interrupted yesterday by stormy weather and the plane sat down at Carcross. Because the Hepburn party was not alarmed, no word was sent of its whereabouts.

Mr. Hepburn's pilot, Jimmy Towne, took off for Vancouver, via Hazelton, but was forced back to Carcross tonight.

C.C.F. SHAPING NEW PLATFORM

Convention at Edmonton Starts Consideration of Party's Political Policy

EDMONTON, July 28 (CP).—With provision made for an economic board, import and export boards and socialization and finance and industries and services, the national convention of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation tonight started consideration of its national political platform.

Declaring a C.C.F. government "would substitute social planning in the place of ruthless competition now practised under capitalism," the platform embraced domestic and foreign problems. At adjournment seven of the fifteen points had been approved.

MANY RESOLUTIONS

Earlier the convention adopted resolutions urging guarantee of freedom of speech, assembly and the press; a national form of unemployment insurance; extension of the federal debt adjustment legislation to urban as well as farm residents; Federal responsibility for unemployment and relief, and fostering of producer and consumer co-operatives. Forestry conservation also was advocated.

ECONOMIC BOARD

Provision in the platform for an economic advisory board composed of representatives of producers and consumers and including engineers, statisticians and economists was approved by the delegates. The proposal also would include a national investment board to facilitate development of the Canadian economy.

The import and export boards, also approved, would foster and regulate international trade and by progressive steps "remove the burdensome tariff imposts." A separate resolution detailing activities of the boards is expected to be submitted.

GREAT PURGE IN FAR EAST

Siberian Paper Tells of Measures to Destroy Enemies on "Inside"

MOSCOW, July 28 (AP).—The Siberian newspaper, Pacific Ocean Star, tells of a "great purge" in the Soviet Russian Far East to frustrate what the newspaper terms Japan's efforts "to destroy our strength from the inside."

"In the past few months a great purge was carried on, and it still continues," the newspaper says. "The Bolshevists of Primorsk Province will smoke from their holes all spies, wreckers and terrorists to the last man."

The newspaper, published at Khabarovsk, near the scene of recent border incidents between Red soldiers and detachments of the Japanese Army of occupation in Manchukuo, says the purge was started "on the initiative" of Joseph Stalin, Secretary-General of the Russian Communist Party.

(Diplomatic exchanges between Moscow and Tokio in a renewed dispute over the Siberian-Manchukuan border were marked by Russian rejection of a Japanese protest

FAMOUS BANDIT SLAIN IN BATTLE

Brazil Rid of Greatest Public Enemy—Twelve Others Killed In Encounter

RIO DE JANEIRO, July 28 (AP).—The law at last has caught up with one-eyed Lampeao, Brazil's "Public Enemy No. 1," and long considered the most ruthless bandit-killer in the Western world.

Dispatches received today by the Department of National Telegraphs said the bandit, who murdered and plundered Brazil's northeastern hinterland for twenty years, had been slain in a pitched battle with police.

Eleven confederates and the sweetheart of the thirty-eight-year-old outlaw, nicknamed Lampeao (Lamp Post) because of his appearance, were killed in the bloody encounter.

For more than a decade police of four states had tried to trap the killer, mention of whose name struck fear in the hearts of thousands of Brazilians.

Vice-Admiral Sir Sidney Meyrick Urges Importance of Keeping Trade Routes Open—Naval Visitors Guests at United Services Luncheon

"THE British Empire stands for peace, and because it does so, it is very necessary that we should have a navy strong enough to command that peace. The strength of the British Navy is the biggest factor in the world for peace.

So stated Vice-Admiral Sir Sidney Julius Meyrick, K.C.B., commander-in-chief, America and West Indies Station, in replying to the toast to His Majesty's Royal Navy at a luncheon given by the United Services Institution of Vancouver Island, in honor of Sir Sidney, Captain H. BRITISH PARLIAMENT IN RECESS WITH FOREIGN SITUATION EASED

Peaceful Solutions Appear Probable for Major Problems Remaining as Members Disperse for Three Months—Believe Spirit of Conciliation Entering Arena of European Politics

Members May Reassemble If Spanish Situation Clears

LONDON, July 28 (CP).—Parliament tomorrow takes a recess for three months, with the Government believing the foreign situation less tense than at any time this year. Major problems remain, but peaceful solutions appear likely. The British Government believes the spirit of reconciliation at last is entering the European situation. There is an apparent tendency to tackle problems by conference, not by long-range provocative speeches.

This is borne out by visits to London by Capt. Fritz Weidemann, Chancellor Hitler's personal representative, and the selection of Viscount Runciman as mediator of the dispute between the Czechoslovak Government and the Sudeten Germans.

MAY REASSEMBLE

While the House is in recess for three months, authority has been given the Speaker to reassemble the members on instigation of the Government. This may be done if the Spanish situation is settled sufficiently to satisfy the Government and make possible ratification of the Anglo-Italian treaty which hinges on this stipulation.

Speaking in the House this week, Prime Minister Chamberlain said the Government could not abandon the position it had taken with respect to settlement of the Spanish question.

Mr. Chamberlain said he regretted

GIANT PLANE IS MISSING

Hawaii Clipper Unreported For Five Hours on Guam-Manila Flight

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29 (AP).—The giant trans-Pacific flying-boat Hawaii Clipper was missing early today on a 1,600-mile flight from Guam to Manila.

The last message from the ship, relayed to Pan-American Airways here, was timed 8:03 p.m. (P.S.T.) Thursday.

The flying-boat was then 565 miles out of Manila.

A United States Navy boat was reported dispatched from Guam to begin a search for the ship, which is capable of floating on the ocean indefinitely.

Pan-American Airways here did not know how many passengers were aboard the clipper. The huge aircraft carried a crew of seven men, under command of Captain Reo Terletzky.

Officials admitted that after failing to hear word from the clipper for more than five hours they were "concerned for her safety."

BLAZE CLAIMS WOMAN VICTIM

Wife of Mayor of Grand Coulee Perishes in $100,000 Fire

GRAND COULEE, Wash., July 28 (AP).—One woman burned to death and businessmen estimated damage at $100,000 in a fire which today razed a full block of the business district in this original "mushroom" town at the Grand Coulee Dam site.

The victim was identified as Mrs. Mary Massart, wife of Acting Mayor Larry Massart. Her body was found in ruins of the Massart Plumbing & Heating Shop, in which the fire started from an unknown cause.

Unconfirmed rumors circulated that a baby also had been in a burned cabin while its parents were away, but there was no verification.

FIRE CROSSES STREET

The flames, leaping 100 feet in the air and cracking windows across the wide street with the heat, raced through the entire block within a half hour after the fire alarm was broadcast.

The fire reduced to ashes the wooden frame buildings housing a half dozen business establishments, a sub-postoffice, two cabin groups and several individual cabins.

Businessmen said little insurance was carried on the buildings.

The fire struck while one of the town's two fire trucks was ninety miles away for repairs at Wenatchee.

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, July 28 (AP).—Eamonn Donnelly, former director of elections for Prime Minister De Valera's Fianna Fail Party in Eire, refused to pay a fine today and began a month in prison for disobeying an order excluding him from Northern Ireland.

Spanish Government Forces Continue to Harass Insurgents

Loyalists Claim Conquest of 200 Square Miles of Rebel-Held Territory—Franco Planes Bomb Valencia, Killing Eighteen Persons

HENDAYE, France, July 28 (AP).—The Spanish Government's South Catalonia Army, led by a former stonemason, was reported tonight to have pushed around and beyond Gandesa and well along the road to Alcantz.

The day of war also brought an insurgent aerial bombardment of Valencia in which eighteen persons, including a Danish non-intervention observer and a Chinese cook aboard the British freighter Kellwyn, were killed.

The Kellwyn, just arrived from Marseille, France, to discharge a cargo of sugar and coffee, was only slightly damaged. One hundred and fifteen bombs, in all, were said to have been unloaded over the populous Mediterranean port city.

A similar attack on Tarragona caused widespread damage, but the number of casualties was not known.

GANDESA IN AREA

The Government did not claim actual occupation of Gandesa, General Francisco Franco's former regional headquarters and a link between the insurgent Catalonian and Mediterranean fronts, but it lay within the 200 square miles of territory regained from the insurgents by the four-day Ebro River offensive.

The Government in its nightly communique tacitly admitted its troops lost a foothold in Gandesa itself, although it reported its main army advanced to Bot, twelve miles to the southwest.

Government leaders acknowledged the insurgents advanced "slightly in the Puente del Arzobispo sector of the Estremadura front in Southwestern Spain.

COVERS WIDE REGION

Reports from Barcelona said the Government's counter-attack had covered 240 square miles, but other advices reaching Hendaye added the gains up to 193 square miles.

Estimates of the number of prisoners taken ranged between 5,000 and 6,000.

So much war material was said to have been abandoned by the surprised insurgents that the rout was compared to defeat of Franco's Italian forces on the Madrid-Guadalajara front in March, 1937.

Franco was reported withdrawing planes from the Valencia front on the south to reinforce the 150 heavy bombers which had tried for four days to blast the Catalonian forces back across the Ebro.

The agreements come into force on August 1.

SHIP'S BAND TO BE HEARD

York Musicians to Beat Retreat at Empress Hotel Tomorrow Night

Vice-Admiral Sir Sidney Julius Meyrick, commander-in-chief of the America and West Indies Station, and officers of H.M.S. York, will be entertained at a Government House dinner tonight by Hon. Eric W. Hamber, Lieutenant-Governor.

Highland games and Scottish sports will be held at Macdonald Park from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. tomorrow as part of the annual Navy Week programme. At 7 o'clock in the evening, H.M.S. York Band will beat a retreat on the Empress Hotel grounds.

Following a drumhead service at St. Paul's Church, Esquimalt, at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning, the York will be open to public inspection from 3 to 6 o'clock. The British cruiser is moored to the new Esquimalt Drydock loading wharf, reached from Admirals Road.

Interesting historical facts on the origin of beating a retreat were furnished Alderman W. H. Davies, the chairman of the City Council celebration committee, by officers of the York.

HAVE LONG HISTORY

Drums were first used in the British Army in the fourteenth century. Henry VIII authorized two drummers to be attached to every company of men. In the seventeenth century the chief drum beats were call, troop, preparative, march, batallie and retreat.

A retreat in battle was a recall to an assembly or rallying point, a signal to form a square. The rallying point was invariably the colors, a square being formed around the colors and the drums kept in action. Thus if the drums ceased to beat retreat, the men knew that the colors had been captured.

In peace a retreat is a recall to billets or barracks, sounded one hour before sunset as a warning that men must be back in barracks in one hour's time. In olden times as garrisons were usually quartered in walled towns, the drums and fifes marched around the walls beating and playing the retreat.

One hour after the retreat, it was customary for the drums or a drummer to march through the town beating tattoo. It meant "tap toe," that is "come out of the tap houses."

RETREAT ORDERS

The following orders have been given for the retreat tomorrow evening:

"Fall in as a band for marching, facing the centre of the parade ground at the west end. Drum-major and drummers advance to the east end, counter march and halt. 'La Reine de Saba,' fanfare by the band.

"Drummers advance playing a drum march, down through band, counter march, back through band. Rolls on arrival in line with front rank of the band, the whole step off playing 'Standard of St. George' march. Advance to centre of the parade, wheel right, counter march at south end, advance towards hotel steps, stand, halt and cease playing.

FURTHER ORDERS

"Accompanied by band, buglers play 'Sunset.' Band advances playing 'Old Panama,' march, counter march and wheel left. Advance to east end, counter march, halt and cease playing.

"March, Drill Squad, on and off. Band remains at halt. Play 'A Life on the Ocean Wave.'

"Slow march, 'Les Hugenots.' Counter march at west end and break into quick march, 'Sons of the Brave.' Advance to east end, counter march and halt in centre of parade. On signal to advance while playing, cease playing 'Sons of the Brave.' Rolls. The whole step off on the first beat. 'Hearts of Oak,' march. Advance to the west end, counter march, break into 'A Life on the Ocean Wave.' No rolls in between. Advance to centre of parade ground. Wheel right, counter march, halt and cease playing.

"Buglers, accompanied by band, play 'Last Post.' Band plays 'O Canada,' followed by the 'National Anthem.'"

WAITING FOR LOWER COST

Sir Edward Beatty Thinks Great Britain Should Subsidize Shipping

QUEBEC, July 28 (C.P.). — Trans-Pacific service of the Canadian-Australasian Line will be continued, but to remove the threat of foreign competition, Britain will have to change shipbuilding policy, Sir Edward Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Steamships, said today on his arrival here in the liner Empress of Britain.

Sir Edward, back from England after discussing the building of new tonnage, said current shipbuilding costs "are considerably higher, and we considered it unwise to build at the present time."

ADMITS THREAT

There was no danger, he said, of the Canadian-Australasian Line, operating between Vancouver and the Antipodes and partly Canadian Pacific-owned, being discontinued, but he admitted British shipping on the Pacific was threatened by foreign competition.

"The United States has found it necessary to subsidize its shipping," the steamship head said. "Japan's ships are heavily subsidized. It appears to me that Britain will have to change her policy from the days when it was the only great shipbuilding and shipping nation and either subsidize its builders or steamship companies or both.

CAN CARRY ON

"We can carry on the trade at present," Sir Edward said, "but we definitely require new tonnage . . . but we are up against high construction costs, and there the matter must rest for the time being.

"When the time is ripe," he concluded, "we believe that we can give a faster and better service than the Americans on the Pacific."

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

PATTERN PICTURES

Long Shadows, With the Sun as a Ready-Made Spotlight—and the Potted Flower Is Twice as Interesting. Don't Overlook the Pattern in the Floor Grooves.

PATTERNS make fascinating pictures, and they are all around you—shadow patterns, ornamental ironwork, window grilles, railings, wheels, stacks of lumber, piles of drain tile—even groups of people in a formal arrangement.

Include a definite pattern in your pictures, and they will have an unusual, "different" quality.

When you go to the beach look for patterns in sand ripples and the shadows cast by beach grass. Climb a high bank or diving tower, and shoot down on your crowd when they are sunning themselves in a circle or formal arrangement like the spokes of a wheel which gives pattern interest to the picture.

Takes pictures of scenes through things, such as ornamental ironwork. The outlines form patterns which make the scenes more interesting. Picture a tennis player through the net or racket—or let him hold the racquet so that the sun casts an interesting criss-cross shadow pattern on his face.

Out in the country, try picturing scenes through wheels of farm equipment—for instance, "frame" a landscape through the tail wheel of a hay rake. The spokes and rim of the wheel give pattern interest. In town, picture shadow patterns on a brick sidewalk or street. The shadows give one kind of pattern interest, and the pattern of the paving adds another.

When a new house is going up—before the roof and weatherboarding are put on—there are pattern chances in the framing and roof timbers. Get inside, point the camera upward, and picture workmen on the roof. Look for pictures, too, in the steelwork of bridges and trestles, and in the criss-cross patterns of wires and cross-beams at the top of telephone poles.

It's fun to hunt patterns, and they add new interest to your pictures. Keep your eye open for them, and snap any that look good.

FORTY KILLED IN BURMESE RIOTS

Street Fighting Between Buddhists And Moslems Breaks Out In Rangoon

RANGOON, Burma, July 28 (AP).—Three days of street fighting between Burmese Buddhists and Indian Moslems reached new severity today when forty persons, including five Indian women, were killed.

Armored cars have patroled the streets since Tuesday, when disorders broke out following publication of a book by a Mohammedan allegedly offensive to Buddhism.

More than 230 persons have been wounded.

Late tonight fierce fighting flared out again in several Indian and Burmese parts of Rangoon. Many bodies were said to be in houses smashed by the rioters and an accurate check on the casualties therefore was impossible.

Ministerial Offices Overseas Not to Be Filled Until Autumn

Envoys Are to Be Sent to France, Brussels and Possibly Japan This Year—Legation to Be Opened in Holland

OTTAWA, July 28 (C.).—While Prime Minister Mackenzie King subscribes to the policy that Canada's diplomatic service should offer careers with the object of appointment to high offices abroad, it is not expected the foreign Ministerial posts to be disposed of this Autumn will be filled by promotion.

New Ministers are to be sent to France and Brussels, and probably to Japan before the end of the present year, and a legation is to be opened at the Hague in Holland, with the Minister to Belgium serving there part time.

During the debate on external affairs last May, Hon. R. B. Bennett, Leader of the Opposition, urged the Government to adopt the principle of promoting experienced legation secretaries to the higher posts, so that young men of the right type would be induced to enter the diplomatic service.

AGREES WITH BENNETT

Mr. Mackenzie King said he was quite in agreement with the Opposition Leader, but observed that Canada's foreign service was small and the responsibilities of a minister great.

While it would be desirable to promote legation secretaries to higher posts, the Prime Minister said, "with world conditions what they are today a great responsibility rests upon a Government with respect to the men to be appointed to the post of minister abroad."

Mr. Bennett, at that time, referred to a report that Justice W. F. A. Turgeon, of the Saskatchewan Appeal Court, was to be appointed as minister, either to France or Belgium, he declared such an appointment would be undesirable in view of Justice Turgeon's two-year absence from the bench while engaged "in political work." (Mr. Turgeon was chairman of two Government commissions inquiring into the textile industry and grain marketing.)

Mr. Mackenzie King replied it was "only natural that he (Justice Turgeon) should be thought of . . . because of exceptional judgment and ability" and not as a reward for political services.

Maxime Raymond, Montreal lawyer and Liberal Member of the House of Comomns for Beauharnois-LaPrairie since 1925, has also been frequently mentioned as likely successor to Hon. Phillipe Roy, Canadian Minister to France.

The legations in Brussels and The Hague will be new, and the former will be a return of the compliment paid Canada by Belgium a year ago when Baron Silvercruys was sent to Ottawa as the first Belgian Minister Plenipotentiary to Canada. One minister will serve both legations.

Hon. Randolph Bruce, Canadian Minister to Japan since September 1, 1936, is expected to retire this Fall. At the time of his appointment it was understood he accepted only for a brief period. He is seventy-five years old and not in good health.

The Prime Minister will not announce appointments to these posts until Autumn.

JAMES ISLAND YOUTH DROWNS

Body of Raymund Albert Emmens, Aged Eighteen, Is Found Off Sidney Wharf

Raymund Albert Emmens, eighteen years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sidney Emmens, James Island, was drowned on Wednesday off the Sidney shipping wharf. His body was recovered yesterday morning at 9 o'clock.

It is believed the youth had just returned from a boat trip to Maple Bay with three other companions when the accident occurred.

Born in Victoria, he had attended Kingsley Private School, Vancouver, for several years, and was prominent in athletics. He is survived by his parents.

The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock from McCall Bros.' Funeral Home. Interment will be made in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

CANADA HAS ITS OWN ART

W. P. Weston Shows Examples of Modern Canadian Painting

From being 100 years ago a country with no true Canadian artists, Canada today had risen to the distinction of being, according to some outstanding critics, the only British Dominion with a really distinctive art expressive of the individual quality of Canadian scenery, atmosphere, houses and types, said W. P. Weston, A.R.C.A., in the course of an admirably illustrated lecture on "Canadian Painting" given to the Summer School of Education students yesterday morning.

People in Canada a century ago were too preoccupied getting a living to bother much about art. The first artists in this country had nearly all come from Europe, with the European tradition of painting, and when they made pictures of Canadian subjects they chose themes which reminded them of some they had seen in Europe, "oftentimes seen in the light of European things even although the subject matter was entirely different." Mr. Weston said that it was some years before he himself began to see the individual character of British Columbia in such a way that he could transfer it to canvas, having been trained in the English tradition.

NATIONAL ART

Gradually there had developed a distinctive national art in Canada. This was now so pronounced that last year when an exhibition of the British Dominions' art was shown in Great Britain, one well-known critic had stated that Canada's was the only one that began to show a distinctly individual feeling. Other Dominions were still painting "rather watered-down editions of British, French and other European work." Visitors who at first were rather amazed by the novelty of what they found in the Canadian section had, after visiting other sections of the exhibition, decided that there was in this country's painting a ruggedness and vitality lacking in the others.

Some very fine lantern slides of Canadian artists' work forcefully illustrated the lecturer's observations. Among the much-praised members of the Canadian school which has evolved from the famous "Group of Seven," which set the way for a distinctive school, was Miss Emily Carr, Victoria, whom Mr. Weston characterized as "one of the most individual painters in Canada, and whose work is recognized as "one of the most individual painters in Canada, and whose work is recognized as such in Eastern Canada, the United States and South America." Using a stylized form, Miss Carr was expressing in a way that few others could some idea of the wild Western coast scenery, incorporating a feeling of "spookiness" that one could not help but sense in some of these places. With a minimum of line she could suggest amazing things.

WILL LAST LONGER

Examples of Canadian portrait art that would "last longer than some of those very sweet portraits of the old school" included a Canadian farm girl with a typical Canadian farm landscape in the background; and another portrait of a lumberjack, a rugged muscular figure with a background of logs giving pattern and congruity to the scene.

About the walls of the auditorium were exhibited several examples of Mr. Weston's own strong expressive atyle, snow scene, seascapes, a lone tree that had survived the battering of many storms, and other subjects. Max Maynard, another Victoria artist, was also represented in this collection, and among the lantern slides were examples of another British Columbia artist, Lismer, who is now in the East.

Raise Money to Aid Sufferers Of Fire Areas

By kind permission of the Victoria Baseball Association and through the efforts of Joe North, the Salvation Army was able to raise the sum of approximately $88 by a collection taken last night at the Royal Athletic Park during the African Zulu Giants-Victoria All-Stars baseball game.

This amount will be entirely devoted to relieving the distress of the fire victims at Campbell River and Courtenay, Captain Archie Dale expressed thanks to all who helped.

This fund will be augmented by a benefit concert which the combined bands of the Salvation Army Citadels in Victoria and the Esquimalt division will give at Beacon Hill Park this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Again the entire proceeds will go toward helping with the same work. Mayor Andrew McGavin will preside.

ISLAND SCHOOL TRUSTEES MEET

Association Representatives Gather at Nanaimo—Discuss Education Costs

NANAIMO, July 28.—Nanaimo board of school trustees tonight appointed Miss Jean Adam, Nanaimo, mathematic teacher of Nanaimo High School; Miss Daisy de Jong, formerly of Harewood School, home economics teacher, replacing Miss Emily Mayhew, resigned; Miss P. U. Sherwood, Vancouver, commercial teacher; Renard Brunt, Vancouver, library and guidance teacher, and Miss Edna Baxter, Nanaimo, elementary teacher.

Mid-Island School Trustees' Association, with representatives from Duncan, Chemainus, Ladysmith, South Wellington, Saltair, Harewood, Errington, Parksville and French Creek present, with Mrs. F. Leeming, of Duncan, presiding, elected Trustee Christer, of French Creek, a delegate to the British Columbia school trustees' convention, to be held at Kamloops, September 26 to 28.

The meeting decided past presidents shall automatically become life members and be governed by privileges of the parent body.

SCHOOL FINANCE

Reeve Chapman, of Cowichan, gave a comprehensive report on data dealing with school finance and a brief containing his findings sent to every board. A resolution passed urged that a committee of representatives of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities and British Columbia School Trustees' Association meet the Government to discuss the best means of reducing taxes for education, charged against municipal lands. The meeting, divided in opinion, heard suggestions from different delegates speaking in favor of a sales tax and raise in income tax for school purposes, but no vote was taken on the suggestions.

A resolution urging that legislation be enacted making it compulsory for trade and industry, under Government supervision, to employ a certain number of apprentices with their skilled labor, carried.

It was argued that it would result in having sufficient numbers of skilled labor available at all times after the system had been in vogue a few years, which was a practice in most countries, with Canada not in the picture. A resolution was lost complaining to the Canadian Broadcasting Company about the absence of grammar and correct pronounciation in radio announcements, and suggesting that careless and ignorant use of English at such times was not deemed edifying for children in the homes who regularly made use of the radio.

A resolution from a board member asking the department to have teachers available for rural areas, able to teach manual training and home economics, was regarded with favor, but not dealt with at the suggestion of the chair, who thought it was covered by the department at the present time. The annual meeting will take place in October.

CORONATION TO BE HELD

Premier T. D. Pattullo to Officiate at Crowning Of "Miss Victoria"

With the Parliament Buildings forming a majestic background for the Coronation ceremonies, which will be held on the broad steps, Premier T. D. Pattullo will place the glittering crown on the dark locks of Miss Kay White, proclaiming her "Miss Victoria" and Queen of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Mid-Summer celebrations, on Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

The picturesque ceremony is expected to attract thousands of interested citizens. It will be followed by the Coronation Ball at the Empress Hotel, from 9:30 o'clock until 12:30.

An amplifying system will be in operation at the scene, and Frank J. Sehl will act as master of ceremonies. Regal airs will be provided by the Canadian Scottish Band, and the Imperial Male Quartette will render selections.

TO CROWN ATTENDANTS

Miss Doreen McGregor and Miss Jean Wilson will be crowned with coronets, distinguishing them as attendants to "Miss Victoria." The First Lady of the ceremony will also be attended by train-bearers and flower girls. Another little girl will act as crown bearer.

After the coronation, "Miss Victoria" and her party will proceed to the Empress Hotel ballroom, where they will be the central attraction in the Grand March. The Junior Chamber of Commerce girls' drill team will form the guard of honor.

Patronage is being lent to the affair by the governmental, naval and civic dignitaries. Hon. Eric W. Hamber, Lieutenant-Governor, will be unable to attend, but will be represented by his aide-de-camp.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Mrs. Fred McGregor, W. Mearns, A. Baker, C. Lefevre, G. E. MacDonald and W. W. Martin.

BOTTLED

Theatre audiences have improved greatly since the days when The Theatrical Repertory, or Weekly Rosciad, dated December 28, 1801, could record of a Covent Garden performance of "Richard III" without a suggestion of sensation: "A ruffian in the two shilling gallery threw a quart bottle upon the stage, which fell so near Mr. Betterton as to strike the hat which he held in his hand, but fortunately did no injury to that gentleman or any of the other performers."

COMPULSORY MARKETING

The judgment of the Judicial Committee of the Imperial Privy Council upholding the validity of the British Columbia Natural Products Marketing Act will strengthen the hands of the Provincial Government in its enforcement, but in no way add to the popularity of this plan of compulsion. The legislation is now established finally as within the jurisdiction of the Province. The Government, presumably, will tighten its regulations, possibly increase the personnel for enforcement, and most certainly emphasize the regimentation that characterizes the legislation.

The efflux of time has done nothing to make compulsory marketing acceptable to all concerned. There is a substantial body of agricultural opinion opposed to it and the opposition is increasing. The judgment of the Judicial Committee, though it must be accepted as based strictly on the constitutional rights of the Province, only clarifies the situation from the official standpoint. There will remain those who believe that the right to dispose of their products as they see fit and in a market which gives them the best returns is inherent in a doctrine of civil liberty interpreted in its broadest sense. The fact, too, remains that compulsory marketing has not produced in British Columbia the benefits promised by its sponsors. The test of any legislation is the success of its application in the purposes it seeks to achieve.

GREAT BRITAIN'S COURSE

In the Great War Turkey was an enemy of Great Britain, an ally of Germany's, and it was the campaign directed by General Allenby that drove the Turks out of Palestine. A considerable change has come over the scene in the relationships of the two countries. Recently Great Britain, without assurances of any kind, loaned Turkey $80,000,000 in the form of export credit, and the bulk of this was for armament purposes. "Any other country," says the Turkish Foreign Minister, "would have demanded all sorts of privileges in times of peace, but particularly in case of war, but Britain asked nothing. She trusted us as she would a real friend. Britain showed she has faith in us. We will show her this faith has not been misplaced."

Great Britain has no political alliance of any sort with Turkey. She is simply trusting to that country's good faith. So far as the Foreign Minister can speak for his country he says, "No matter what happens never will Turkey be found in the camp opposing Britain." This is one of the results of Mr. Neville Chamberlain's policy of appeasement. More and more are different countries of the world looking toward Great Britain for leadership in the establishment of peace between nations. Mr. Chamberlain has recognized his country's role in this particular and of it he says: "I am thoroughly convinced that the influence that this country can exert for good or evil—for others as well as for ourselves— is more powerful than that of any country in the world. That is due partly to our inherent strength and to the many resources of which we are possessed. But it is due also to a general if not universal recognition of the fact that our policy as a country is not directed merely by selfish interests, but that it is rooted in the conviction that there can be no peace or security or permanence of happiness for mankind except under the rule of law and order, of reason, and of good faith. It is much easier to formulate maxims of this kind than it is to apply them in practice, and those who endeavor to steer by these general but deep-seated principles should expect to suffer many disappointments and setbacks. They have their motives misrepresented and their sincerity doubted. But men who are worthy of their salt are not going to be turned from their purpose by temporary inconveniences and annoyances of that kind. The Government of which I am at present the head intend to hold on its course, which is set for the appeasement of the world."

APPEARANCE AND REALITY

In bookish circles the terms "realist" and "idealist" are used to denote different methods of writing. The former suggests fidelity of representation, truth to nature, insistence upon concrete detail; the latter refers to an imaginative treatment of the matter in hand. The besetting sin of some "realistic" writers is an inordinate affection for detail, disproportionate in amount, ill-chosen, irrelevant, or stupidly ugly. Idealism may become visionary, may set up an impossible standard of excellence in some sphere of thought or action and pass into the uncharted realms of wishful thinking.

As in literature, so it is in life. Realism in political action is usually taken to mean a policy which deals with people, circumstances, and events, not so much as they ought to be, but as they are. Those who call themselves political realists are not, however, always true to the principles of a sound realism. Dictators, for example, are only too apt to pose as realists of the most approved pattern. They are, in truth, mostly dreamy idealists whose Utopia, conceived by them as a heaven upon earth, comprehends no "realities" save intimidation and regimentation, made effective by spies, police, star chamber courts, and the cruelty and vengeance of prisons and the scaffold. Obviously, an alleged reality may, after all, be a mere concept existing only in the mind, a case of mistaken identity. The myth of a Nordic "race," the phantasm of "classes" of haves and have-nots may be taken as examples.

The past twenty years have seen many disquieting movements, revolutionary and reactionary, in both politics and literature. Political speculations of a wild and dangerous character have been boldly put forth. These doctrines have been spread abroad by the co-operation of writers, publishers, booksellers, and public and private circulating libraries. In actual contemporary life these rash speculators have been matched, and even surpassed, by political adventurers. Principles regarded as almost axiomatic in the nineteenth century are flouted and derided as antiquated and outworn in the "emancipated" political thinking of the twentieth. Methods of government which were supposed to belong to the dark ages have been revived and glorified and put into practice in our own times. The modern society novel has not escaped the prevailing infection. Much of the rubbish which by some mysterious process finds its way on to the shelves of modern circulating libraries exhibits about as much restraint as the licentious drama of Restoration times. If that drama reflected the life of a dissolute court rather than that of the whole people, we may hope that the rubbishly "literature" issuing from publishing houses today is no true reflection, but a distorted caricature of the social life of our own day.

The scholastic controversy between Realists and Nominalists occupied the minds of the acutest thinkers of those days. Do concepts exist merely in the mind? This is Nominalism. Have they a substantial existence of their own independent of their existence in our thought? This is Realism. Perhaps the famous old controversy has some bearing on the fact that novelists and politicians of every age are as likely as other people to imagine a vain thing and call it real.

RUSSIA'S PURGES

Major-General Lyushkoff, a former officer of Russia's Red Army, has been telling newspapermen of some recent happenings in the Soviet realm. The various army purges, he says, have affected more than 10,000 high military officers and political leaders, as well as more than 1,000,000 civilians and soldiers. His claim is that all the commanders who took part in the fighting between 1917 and 1921 have been arrested or executed, and that what has been happening cannot but react unfavorably on the moral of the army.

Major-General Lyushkoff lays claim to having taken part in the investigation of all treason cases from 1934 to 1936, including the Kiroff assassination. His assertion is that the charges brought against such men as Zinovieff, Kameneff, Tomsky, Rykoff and Bukharin were simply because they were opposed to Stalin's policies. The Soviet ruler, he says, "has destroyed the Communist Party as a co-operative organization; it is now simply a group of his nominees to support his personal despotism." The confessions of political prisoners, to which so much publicity has been given, Maj.-Gen. Lyushkoff maintains are due to "sheer cowardice" in some cases, "but mostly to the tortures inflicted when the victims are under examination and to the threatened victimization of their relatives if the statements desired by the authorities are not forthcoming." If these statements are true it is easy to understand why there is such a rigid censorship of the Press in Russia.

I LOVE THE OLD

I love the simple songs our mothers sung:
The well-thumbed tomes our sires were wont to read;
Those early friendships when the world seemed young,
And friends were friends, in very truth and deed.
I love established truths, so early taught,
That have withstood the winnowing of the years;
Which in the market place cannot be bought,
Nor sold for price, though sought 'mid blinding tears.
I love the shrines; deep groves of ancient trees;
The eternal hills, stern sentinels sublime,
That mark the tramp of marching centuries.
Down the worn causeway of unending time,
These things I love, yet tell but half the truth,
I love the fervent flame of questing youth.

"He went to her funeral, just for the ride—after she up and d-i-e-d," as the old song has it. Alas, poor Freedom. You knew her well, before she was left to the tender mercies of parliament, and such other persons outside the civil service whom parliament might designate to licence you, and fee you, and tax you. Heaven help you all, the Marketing Act stands. If there is a wail from the Barrow Baby after this, you will know it is because you failed to spank her when she was small. Now she will be mistress in your home; well, on your farm, anyway; little Miss Market Control. Little Miss Liquor Control, little Miss Fuel Control, little Miss Health Control, little Miss Padlock Control— what a liberal family it is getting to be! P. C. London "hadn't ought to have done it." The child is too big for her boots.

To speak of pleasant things, there is a power of wistful fun in the old ballads of camp fire days. To give you just the essence of the "Lovers Who Lied," revived this year under distinguished patronage, it is the tale of young love that foundered in a sea of misunderstanding. He laughed when she died, and went to her funeral, just for the ride. Then he married her sister. There is more to it, a lot more; one of the mournful, endless round-the-fire songs of other days.

Another, older people will recall, was The Hobo, justly representative of a class of retired, leisured gentlemen who "called at all the best of doors, lived on the best of fare." In the middle of the song is an indignant denial of shiftlessness. The Hobo points out he is received by the very best company; that the front and not the back door is his approach; and that the hand-outs are such as only a king of the road would choose. You may remember it yet by the line: "I know I'm a Hobo, but who said I am a bum?"

Life can be grotesque at times. The picture of thousands of people waiting in the streets of an Eastern city to watch a demented man jump from a height of seventeen storeys, while film cameras were poised for a front-rank view of his exodus from the world of the living, is about as barbarous a one as any age could recall. It is true efforts were made to stop him; but the crowd was not there for that purpose, nor were its cameras.

The air is thrusting itself more into the news daily. The Mercury is completing her cargo-voyage across the Atlantic via the Azores, from Foynes to Montreal and return. Trans-Canada air mail service is growing nearer. At Vancouver arrangements are made for a Whitehorse-Vancouver air link in Canada's Pacific Northwest. At Seattle, across the border, plans for direct sea flight from Seattle to Juneau, and out along the Alaskan peninsula, are in motion.

In laboratories, an electrical depth sounder for aircraft is being revived, with ultimate hope of finding a reliable means of telling plane pilots how high they are above the uneven surface of the earth, and how far away from the nearest object flying in the air. Fogs and collisions will lose their terrors if such a device can be perfected and rendered practicable.

On the sidelines are designers who say that aircraft will grow up fast now, into intermediate air liners carrying 100 passengers and many tons of freight; and from that in the not too distant future to air liners carrying 1,000 passengers and the full load of a marine vessel. Already the cockpit has become a chart-room; cabins have lengthened and broadened into living-rooms; and the whole trend is, stratospherically, up.

Howard Hughes and his party flew around the world of man. It is a quibble to say that he did not fly around the Equator. Nobody of great importance lives at the Equator. Mr. Hughes navigated a commercial transport ship around the habitable northern part of the globe, fairly and squarely around the world we live in; 15,000 miles of it in less than four days. There is still the band at the Equator, if anyone wants to fly around it for the sake of going 24,856 miles.

Faster than airplanes, radio has been circling the world for some time, at the Equator and otherwise. Planes and radio can be and are being used to convey thought. Man, in a larger sense, is becoming nomadic again; and it is a useful, logical trend. There is always the possibility that after you get to know "the other fellow" you may like him. Peoples of the world will learn to understand each other better; and what you understand, you no longer fight over. It can be a magnificent age.

The experts are at it again. In the Middle West an investigator has raised a doubt about fluctuating intelligence quotients in children, the well-known IQ's. Children have different IQ's at different ages and at different periods of the same age, it is beginning to be suspected. That is progress, of course; but such a slow method. If the investigators only had children of their own, for instance, they could learn all about them at first hand. Then they would cease to be experts and become parents; and parents, after all, do know something about children.

EVERYDAY WALKERS

Sir,—Re your editorial, "Everyday Pedestrians," I spoke to a man cutting the boulevards with a lawnmower who had a contraption on his leg that registered twenty-nine and one-half miles of walking just as he was knocking off for the day. That beats the postman and more than doubles the policeman's fourteen miles daily.

The Observation Car

By THE EDITORIAL STAFF

Noble Deed

Down East Saanich Road whizzed a pee wee automobile bearing a man and a woman. Behind the tiny car a California tourist purred along in a machine five times the size. The tourist was followed by a member of the International Typographical Union, taking in the beauties of the countryside as he rested from his strenuous calling. Suddenly each occupant of the baby automobile flung a lighted cigarette into the grass beside the highway. That was too much for the Californian, schooled in the wisdom of fire prevention. He accelerated, cut across the bow of the pee wee and forced the driver to stop. Without mincing words, he delivered a short lecture on fire prevention. As the typographical motorist drove up the tourist remarked: "There's a heavy fine for that sort of carelessness where I come from. Where is the nearest highway patrol office? I'm going to report that incident." We heard later that the Provincial Police were supplied with a detailed account of the happening.—G.B.

Wooden Monument?

Edgar Bergen flew to Mexico after a recent broadcast for a vacation —but Charlie McCarthy stayed at home. When an insurance company gave Mr. Bergen a $10,000 fire and theft policy on Charlie, he agreed not to take the dummy out of the country. If Bergen leaves Los Angeles he has to submit in advance to the insurance company a written report of what arrangements have been made to assure the speaking fence post's safety while he is away . . . Citizens of Decatur, Michigan, have started a movement to erect a monument to Charlie. For eleven years it was the boyhood home of Bergen. It was from there, as a matter of fact, that he sent for a mail order book on ventriloquism and started the hobby which has been responsible for his meteoric rise to stardom on the radio. The ventriloquist doesn't seem to figure in the monument, however, even though the leaders in the idea are former school chums of his. The proposed inscription is, "Decatur, Birthplace of Charlie McCarthy." —W.I.F.

Glancing Over Sport

That Steele-Hostak fight this week in Seattle goes into the official books as a victory for the latter via the technical knockout as I said in my story from the Sound City following the bout. Some of the scribes sent their stories stating that Hostak won by a straight knockout. Referee Jack Dempsey actually stopped the fight as Steele was staggering and reeling hopelessly around the ring after going to the canvas for the fourth time during the minute and forty seconds . . . An interesting spectator at the ringside was none other than Jack Benny, famous radio and movie star . . . Also sitting on the infield of the former ball park was a father and son combination, Lester and "Muzz" Patrick. The former picked Hostak and the son went out on the limb for Mr. Steele, the dethroned champion . . . Horace Beer, local cafe proprietor, claims he didn't see the short main event and he blames it on to lighting a cigar and talking to a person near by at the time. When the stogie was ignited and conversation over the fight was over . . . Constable Tommy Stevenson, of the local police force, liked Steele and therefore his pocketbook suffered accordingly . . . Al St. Martin, immigration man, was strong in favor of Hostak and left Seattle with more than when he boarded the boat here.—J.D.

Or Just Plain Dumb

We hate betraying our ignorance even at the best of times, but right now there is a problem that has puzzled us considerably. A little over a year ago the aeronautical world was startled by the announcement from England that plans were under way to design the first composite trans-Atlantic airplane in history. The theory of this radical departure from usual type of aircraft was that the upper airplane would be added in the take-off by a second larger machine underneath. Officials pointed out that the upper plane would thus be able to carry a greater pay-load than if it attempted to take off unassisted. Two days ago the flight was launched and amid cheers of thousands the four-motored plane spanned the Atlantic and landed on our eastern shores. Air experts beamed at the justification of their composite aircraft theory. The following day the airplane took off from Botwood, Newfoundland, on the return trip to Foynes —entirely unassisted and under its own power. And it is at this point that we invariably begin asking ourself the question—"Why bother with the other plane at all?" Perhaps we are just ignorant.—J.A.M.

The time used is Pacific standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for heights serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, measured from the average level of low water.

To find the depth of water on the sill of the new Esquimalt drydock, add 30 feet

CULBERTSON on CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson

World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

Dear Mr. Culbertson,—On several occasions you have written that team-of-four contests with total point scoring offer the best test of skill and, since my club's team-of-four licked the daylight out of our rivals last night, I am eager to agree with you. Perhaps I have exaggerated the margin of victory. To be perfectly honest, it was only 470 points, and the hand I am enclosing accounted for all of this difference and little besides. When the opposition played the North-South hands the four spade contract was defeated one trick. When my partner played as declarer, however, he put over a fast one on the enemy and sneaked home his contract. I considered it a very interesting case of obscuring the defence.

North, dealer.

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
1 ♣	Pass	1 ♠	2 ♦
3 ♣	Pass	3 ♠	Pass
4 ♠	Pass	Pass	Pass

"The bidding was identical in both rooms, and so was the opening lead namely, the singleton club by West. In the other room (as we discovered later) the play had gone more or less in orthodox fashion, which is to say that declarer won the first trick in his own hand with the ten spot and then, in order to get out two rounds of trumps before losing the lead, sent the jack of spades through West. Unfortunately, this attempted ruse did more harm than good. West stayed off the first round, all right, but won the second, and now East was given the opportunity to signal with the eight of diamonds. West promptly underled the diamond ace. East won and returned a club, which West ruffed, and the cashing of the heart ace sealed the declarer's doom.

"At our table South, my partner, made matters much tougher for the defenders. Winning the opening lead with the club ten, he returned, not a trump, but the diamond ten up to dummy's singleton queen. Now, as you can see, West was truly on the spot. He could not know where the diamond king was. Declarer might be pulling a fast one and leading away from it. And there was, of course, a chance that if East did not hold the diamond king he might hold the heart king. Hence I do not think that West can be criticized for jumping up with the ace and laying down the heart ace, to watch for East's signal. When East could not encourage a heart continuation, however, West was finished. He could not get the club ruff and, of course, there were only three aces off the hand.

"Yours very truly,

The successful declarer's play was, of course, highly commendable. The unsuccessful declarer probably thought that he was merely unfortunate in finding West with three spades instead of two, but he had no ground for this self-commiseration. The pseudo-ruse of leading the spade jack would not have succeeded against a good player in the West position, even if he had held only two spades. The good player would jump up and cash the heart ace, watching for partner's heart signal. If East could give no encouraging card West promptly would underlead the diamond ace, as the one possible means of putting East on lead for a club return and ruff. Thus the one means of putting West into a very difficult position was to make him guess at the second trick what the best defence would be. The diamond lead made by the successful declarer robbed West of the opportunity to lay down the heart ace and thus find out about the heart king before having to make his decision about the right diamond play.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily Colonist of July 29, 1888).

On the Rocks—The steamer Beaver (Captain Marchant) sailed on Tuesday night from Vancouver for Thurlow Island. The wind was blowing pretty fresh and with the strong tide running, carried the famous old craft onto the rocks just at the entrance of the narrows. The steamer Muriel went to her assistance, and it is not yet known to what extent she is damaged. Her hull is of the best English oak, and, although fifty-three years old, is apparently as sound as on the day it was put in.

Arrival of the Titania—The Hudson Bay Company's clipper ship Titania arrived in Esquimalt yesterday, again making a quick passage, reaching port in 121 days from London. She has a general cargo and naval stores.

Another School—On an elevation in the rear of Mr. Russell's residence on Esquimalt Road, has recently been finished a neat structure for school purposes. It is erected in an acre of ground which has been well fenced in, and is pleasantly situated in every way for the work of teaching. The school is in the district and, like the other schools which have of late years been erected, it will undoubtedly attract a large attendance.

FUEL BOARD SEES TRADE

Elimination of Special Privileges and Posting of Gas Prices Discussed

The public posting of gasoline prices and elimination of what the board considers as special privileges were discussed by Dr. W. A. Carrothers, as the head of the British Columbia Fuel Control Board, with representatives of the fuel oil industry at a meeting here yesterday. No decisions were reached, but progress was made in the discussions, Dr. Carrothers said.

"We talked over the suggestions of the board as applied to the industry, including the posting of gasoline prices at retail outlets, and the dropping of certain practices which might come under the heading of special privileges. The discussion was amicable, but no express decisions were arrived at," Dr. Carrothers explained after the meeting.

Meanwhile, the licensing provisions of the board are going into effect with all producer, wholesale and retail fuel outlets to be licensed within the province by August 15 next.

OBSERVE CHURCH ANNIVERSARY

St. Mary's, Metchosin, Celebrates Event With Well-Attended Country Fair

METCHOSIN, July 28.—A record gathering attended the "country fair" held at Metchosin on Wednesday afternoon to celebrate the sixty-fifth anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of St. Mary's Church. Rev. H. M. Bolton read a letter from Lindley Crease, who expressed his regrets at being unable to attend. Archdeacon A. del. Nunns, a former rector of the parish, formally opened the fair, and gave a brief address recalling old times. Visitors included Archdeacon and Mrs. A. del. Nunns, Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Yerburgh, E. V. Finland, M.P.P., and Mrs. Finland. Others were welcomed from Victoria, Langford and the surrounding districts.

Those in charge of the various stalls and activities were as follows: Historical display, Rev. H. M. Bolton; farm produce, P. H. Gentleman and W. H. House; home cooking, Mrs. C. E. Jackson and Miss Nora Helgeson; white elephants, Miss K. Chegwin; lavender, Miss Ruth Beckingham; ice cream, Mrs. Fergus Reid and Mrs. R. S. Peacock; afternoon tea, Mrs. H. E. Bell, Mrs. W. Witty and Mrs. R. A. Pennington; grab bag, Mrs. H. Walker; publicity, F. F. Frudd; games of chance, H. Walker, H. E. Bell, E. Blake, J. Houseman, W. Jennings.

Panting and perspiring, two Irishmen on a tandem bicycle at last got to the top of the steep hill.

"That was a stiff climb, Pat," said the first.

"Sure and it was that," said Pat. "And if I hadn't kept the brake on we would have gone backwards."

LOG SCALE HELD FIRM

Six Months' Cut Amounted To 1,167,690,661 Board Feet in B.C. Woods

British Columbia's saw log scale dropped approximately 100,000,000 board feet for the first half of the current year, remaining fairly steady otherwise, according to reports in the hands of the Provincial Forest Service yesterday. The log scale for six months was 1,167,609,661 board feet, compared with 1,276,067,659 board feet in the first half of last year.

In addition, 5,294,605 lineal feet of poles and piling; 78,145 cords of firewood and 618,966 pieces of hewn ties were handled. Poles and piling were 750,000 feet less than in the corresponding period, but ties substantially more.

The log scale for the month of June was 309,107,705 board feet, as against 362,268,902 board feet in that month last year.

Fires interfered little with the scale for the first six months, most outbreaks occurring in July, when many camps close normally for brief periods.

MAYOR WILL OPEN SHOW

Andrew McGavin to Officiate Today at Summer Floral Display at Willows

Mayor Andrew McGavin will officially open the annual two-day Summer flower show of the Victoria Horticultural Society at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the Main Building at the Willows exhibition grounds. Doors will be open to the public at 1 p.m. It is anticipated that generous patronage will be extended to the display by garden lovers of the community and visitors in the city.

Squads of carpenters and decorators were busy last night erecting the long rows of semi-circular display booths that today will hold the pick of floral exhibits from all over the Island. Exhibits from as far north as Ladysmith have been received, and the total number of competitors will be unusually large, despite the ravages wreaked on local gardens by the prolonged drought of the last two months.

WIDE RANGE OF PRIZES

The show, which is the second of the three annual displays put on by members of the Victoria Horticultural Society, offers a wide range of prizes and awards to both amateur and professional contenders. The two main prizes consist of the Naysmith Challenge Cup and the R. A. Nicholson Trophy. The Naysmith award will go to the winner of the greatest number of points in all open classes, while the Nicholson Trophy will be awarded to the best amateur exhibit in the floral section.

Two other principal trophies, the Banksian Medal and the Grand Aggregate Challenge Trophy, will be presented following the society's chrysanthemum show in October. Winners will be judged on their total number of points won during the three shows.

HUNDREDS OF ENTRIES

Apart from the hundreds of private entries that will fill the various booths and stands at the show, entries will be received from the school board, Beacon Hill Park, the Flower and Fern Shop, and a huge display of gladioli from the gardens of T. W. Forsyth, Cadboro Bay.

In the evenings special entertainment will be staged by Miss Florence Clough and her dancing pupils. At the close of the show on Saturday night, Reeve R. R. Taylor, of Oak Bay, will award the prizes to winners in the various classes.

Machines Collide — A car, which police said was driven by James Hill, 3364 Burns Avenue, and a motorcycle in charge of Crofton Winpenny, Port Alberni, were in collision at the intersection of Broughton and Douglas Streets yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Patricia Hickey, a passenger on the motorcycle, suffered injuries to her left ankle. She was later taken to Dr. T. W. A. Gray's office for treatment. Both vehicles were slightly damaged.

OUTING ENJOYED BY ELDERLY MEN

Residents of Aged Men's Home Guests at Annual Picnic at Esquimalt Lagoon

The annual picnic entertainment, provided under the auspices of the Fred Landsberg Fund for residents of the Home for Aged and Infirm Men, was held Wednesday afternoon at the Milburn picnic grounds, Esquimalt Lagoon. Mr. J. H. Beatty, chairman of the Landsberg Fund committee, and Alderman W. H. Davies, secretary, were in charge of the outing and were assisted by A. H. Anderson, Eli Bean, Albert Davies, Percy Fitzsimmons, Dr. Richard Pelton and E. G. Snowden.

In the absence of Mayor Andrew McGavin, Alderman Burges Gadsden, acted as his deputy, acting also for Alderman Stanley H. Okell, chairman of the city's home committee. Among the ladies gracing the occasion and doing the chief work of catering were Mrs. E. Bean, Mrs. W. H. Davies, Mrs. Stanley James and Mrs. Milburn.

About a score of the less disabled residents in the home participated in the events. The competitive contests consisted of nail-driving, table quoits and loop-bottle fishing. An item of enthusiastic interest was a sparring match between two children, Laurie Davies and Gerry James. The Victoria's novelty band enlivened the afternoon.

Alderman Gadsden thanked those active in preparations, in transporting and in catering, while George Havard, manager of the home, expressed the gratitude of the recipients for all the exceptionally satisfactory incidents in the programme.

Weddings

SMITH—SHERBURN

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon at St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay, Rev. E. M. Willis officiating, when Elsie, younger daughter of Mr. [illegible] Sherburn and the late Mrs. Sherburn, and Mr. Sydney Wakefield Smith, were united in marriage.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming frock of wine-flowered silk with white hat and white accessories and a corsage bouquet of red roses and bavardia. She was attended by her niece, Miss Margery Tindall, wearing a navy sheer frock and corsage bouquet of red carnations. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Horace P. Smith. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. M. Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left later for Shawnigan Lake, where they will reside.

MURPHY—COVENAY

NANAIMO, July 28.—The marriage was solemnized at St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church today of Annie Edith, daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. R. T. Covenay, and Mr. Joseph Reginald Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Murphy. Both families of the contracting parties have been prominent in Nanaimo for many years. Only members of the family witnessed the ceremony and were present at luncheon at the Plaza Cafe.

The bride wore a becoming ensemble of beige wool crepe, with accessories of mulberry red and a corsage bouquet of yellow rosebuds. Mrs. T. Bertram, Port Alberni, was her only attendant, wearing crushed strawberry crepe, with blue accessories and a corsage bouquet of coral rosebuds. Mr. Harvey Murphy, Jr., was best man. Mrs. Covenay, mother of the bride, wore silk floral lace with matching accessories, and Mrs. Murphy was gowned in navy blue.

Following a honeymoon trip to California, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will reside at Departure Bay for the Summer.

Mrs. Fortt is at present in Quebec, and will come to Victoria in the Autumn. Seated between Miss Stewart and Miss Fortt on the lawn at the Barracks, is "Teddy," family friend of the Stewarts.

The United Presbyterial executive will not hold its regular meeting this afternoon. Members are asked to note that the usual meeting will be held in August.

FASHION NOTES

The new wool suit bed jackets for the first cool Fall days have a bulky softness that has strong feminine appeal.

Black elastic satin bathing suits are flattering to the larger-than-average figure.

Pastel washable suits are very summery in appearance, also very practical. And they can be worn without blouses to look like dresses.

The college girl who wants something extra smart for Fall will select a camel hair suit in natural color. A lighter weight camel hair is used for the gored skirt than for the jacket or topcoat, in order to avoid a bulky appearance.

Sixty-five to 70 per cent of the Summer shoes purchased are of the open-toe variety.

New coats for Autumn and Winter have fur sleeves in beaver, skunk, mink, Persian and black fox. Coats with fur sleeves are narrower than last year.

The Autumn silhouette may be slim or bouffant according to the wearer, but one thing all Autumn silhouettes have in common—clearly defined waistlines.

Black dresses will be more numerous as the Summer wanes and Fall comes. But color has a decidedly important place in the Autumn fashion picture. Pastels will not fade out of view when Fall comes but will be worn in accessories, sportswear and formal wear.

Deep, rich, vibrant colors will brighten the Fall and Winter season in woolens, velvets and silks. There are soft blues, mustard, gold, light cocoa and dark chocolate browns.

First in sportswear are plum and teal blue. The later is the blue you see on the small river duck called a teal. These are first in importance in knit and cloth costumes.

Delicate pastels are forecast for evening, with contrasting jewelry that reflects the 1900 influence. Pastels are also shown for accessories, the flower hues being especially in evidence.

Then there are the wine tones. Chianti is a new shade launched by one house. It is suggested that accessories of this shade will give a costume a decidedly smart flip.

For the younger element a bright shade of red—approximately scarlet—is sponsored in wool for daytime and in crepes for evening wear.

SOLD TEA TICKETS

It is regretted by the conveners of the garden party held at Hatley Park by the Florence Nightingale Chapter, I.O.D.E., on Wednesday afternoon, that the name of Mrs. F. McKenzie, who sold the tea tickets, was inadvertently omitted from the list of those assisting at the fete.

LUXTON DANCE

ANNIVERSARY OF WAR IS IGNORED

Declaration Between Austria and Serbia, Twenty-Four Years Ago, Passes Without Notice

VIENNA, July 28 (AP).—The twenty-fourth anniversary of the Austrian declaration of war against Serbia, the first that divided Europe in war in 1914, passed today completely ignored.

Since then, the Hapsburgs lost their imperial throne, monarchy yielded to democracy and finally little Austria, all that was left of the Austro-Hungarian empire after the Versailles Treaty, has been absorbed in Greater Germany.

Now, almost a quarter of a century later, the tables seem irrevocably turned against the fallen House of Hapsburg.

All the wealth that Emperor Otto I began to accumulate 1,000 years ago when he confiscated the property of German Count Guntram now has been confiscated again from Otto, pretender to the same throne, by Reichsfuehrer Hitler.

A thousand years ago Emperor Otto sent Count Guntram to prison for high treason. Today Otto von Hapsburg is wanted by German police and a warrant is out for his arrest, charging high treason.

the delay in ratification of the pact, and added: "We shall do all we possibly can to facilitate the withdrawal of foreign volunteers from Spain in order that that country may cease to offer a threat to the peace of Europe."

Meanwhile, the Government is understood to be hopeful of a settlement of the dispute involving the Sudeten German minority of Czechoslovakia. The selection of Lord Runciman is regarded as a step in the direction of conciliation, which often has been lacking in European developments during the last year.

Mr. Chamberlain has made known the willingness of the Government to act as mediator in the Spanish and Chinese-Japanese wars.

HOOKED—BY GUM!

WEST BRANCH, Iowa, July 28 (AP).—Mrs. E. W. Erickson went fishing, but didn't have any luck using choice offerings of worms, crawdads and strong cheese. Then she put chewing gum on the fishhook and cast. A two-pound bass struck—and stuck.

"Are you sure that you are an expert accountant?"

"Well," replied the applicant, "you can judge for yourself. It took me only two days to unravel my wife's expense account after her holiday trip."

Comrade Stalin, the militant capacity of our party organization is increasing daily, also the strength of our red-bannered Far Eastern front and our Pacific fleet.

"If Japanese rabble poke their noses into Prim rsk Province they have only themselves to blame for the consequences. They will be scattered by a hurricane of fire from the air, sea and land."

Tenderfoot—Did you have to have a lot of practice before you could shoot the ashes from the cigar in the mouth of a man standing fifty feet away, as you do in your Wild West act?

Two-Gun Bill—Practice? I should remark. I guess I spiled a couple dozen Chinamen while I was learnin' that there little trick.

mangled bodies of his companions was W. Clarke Isbister, twenty-three, Toronto, who died in hospital a short time later. Hewat and Field were married, Isbister and Crocker betrothed.

SAVED BY DELAY

Mere chance saved the life of Assistant Superintendent William Bennett, of Toronto. About to step into the cage with the five others, Bennett turned aside to examine a load of clay just dumped beside the hoist entrance. He returned in time to see the cage drop from sight. Bennett was reported tonight suffering from nervous shock.

Quickly rescue workers descended the shaft in another cage. Below four lay dead in the bent steel ruins of the death cage. Isbister moaned. Suffering from internal injuries and with both legs and shoulders broken, Isbister was carried to hospital. His fiancee, Miss Fanny Thompson, was at his bedside when he died.

Libby's DEEP-BROWNED BEANS

TRY Libby's Deep-Browned Beans Cooked the NEW Way

You don't have to force children to eat Libby's Deep-Browned Beans. They go for them in a big way without any prompting from anyone, and ask for them again and again. They may not know why they like them so much, but the reason is—Libby's New Cooking Method!

By this new method of cooking—patented by Libby—every bean is browned through to the very centre to perfection—not overdone, not underdone, but just right, no rush, no hurry, every bean must be "just so".

Here comes your plate! Sniff that aroma—tantalizing! Look at the colour—a richer, deeper, warmer brown that plays tag with your appetite. Now taste them! Notice the firmer, yet tender texture—that baked-potato mealiness. And the flavour! That's real down-home baked bean goodness, isn't it? Well—if you don't say it is Libby will pay you double the purchase price.

Serve Libby's Deep-Browned Beans often. It's good nourishing food for children and grown-ups alike. Easy to serve and economical, too.

northeast of Vancouver. The road through the valley was endangered.

MEN WITHOUT WATER

Hot dry weather and promises of increasing westerly winds gave little cheer to fighters in the Cariboo where, last night, a high-pressure line of Quesnel Mining Company at Likely burst and left mine and men without water.

Hasty repairs were started late today in an effort to curb the blaze that began an advance on the company's Spanish Creek camp.

The fire between Quesnel and Horsefly Lakes still raged and three residents of the area were reported ready to evacuate at any time.

Reports from Prince George, some 350 miles south of Vancouver, said the 60,000 acres forest fire along the Beaver River was checked.

PEACE OF WORLD LIES IN STRENGTH

trade arteries along which the very life blood of the Empire flowed.

TRADE ARTERIES

"Our very existence as an Empire depends on trade following its peaceful course along those arteries," he said. "It is the first and foremost duty of the whole Imperial Navy to keep the trade routes open in order that the business of the Empire may follow a truly peaceful course.

"We hear people say that these increased armaments make for war," the speaker continued. "History supports the fact that when Britain has been strongest the risk of war has been least. We must have a navy of such a strength that it will make other nations hesitate before picking a quarrel with us."

Sir Sidney remarked that he did not suggest that one should think in terms of ships of war only. Ships needed bases, and those bases had to be protected by armies.

"Only by proper co-operation between the three services, the army, navy and air force, can the British Empire as we know it today go on existing," he said. "May I suggest that we should always try to avoid taking part in any discussion as to which is the most important service. The soldier, the sailor, and the airman must be prepared to play together as a team."

FOUNDATION OF EMPIRE

Colonel J. S. Dennis, C.M.G., president of the Institution, in proposing the toast, declared that the foundation upon which the British Empire had been built and was being maintained was His Majesty's Royal Navy.

"The opinion which has been expressed in Great Britain and Canada that if an emergency arises we in Canada should look to the navy of our neighbor to the South for protection instead of to the Royal Navy, is certainly not the wish or opinion of the United Services Institution," Colonel Dennis said.

"As a Canadian, I have at times been ashamed that we in Canada have not followed the lead of our sister Dominions of New Zealand and Australia in giving the Motherland a helping hand," he continued, "and I am delighted to know that at last Canada has awakened and is building up in the Royal Canadian Navy a force of which we may all be very proud—the nucleus of a navy that will give a good account of itself when the need arises."

Active and retired naval officers and representatives of the sister service, headed by Brigadier J. C. Stewart, were present at the informal luncheon, which was attended by about seventy-five persons.

The ten next best dressed women will meet in the Blue Room, Tuesday, at 3 o'clock, for a good cry.

RAISING MONEY TO REOPEN COLLEGE BY PUBLIC SUBSCRIPTION

BRANDON, Man., July 28 (C.P.)—City-wide public subscription would be utilized to raise money to permit Brandon College to reopen this Fall, it was decided at a public meeting here tonight. By the subscription programme the college hopes to raise $15,000 in order to be eligible for an additional $15,000 from the Provincial Government.

Brandon College appealed to the Provincial Government some time ago for a grant of $35,000 annually. The Government's counter-proposal was assurance they would contribute $15,000 annually for twenty years toward upkeep of the college, providing the college raised an equal amount.

START HIGHWAY WORK

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C., July 28 (C.P.)—Construction of the new International Highway between the Pattullo Bridge and the boundary line was under way today. Two contracting companies in the $300,000 highway project were at work clearing right-of-way before actual road-building operations commence.

LOST PRIEST IS LOCATED AT KOBE

Father Jacquinot Disappeared on July 20 After Leaving Liner at Yokohama—Details Lacking

TOKIO, July 29 (CP-Havas).—Father Robert Jacquinot, the French priest whose disappearance created a mystery here, was found near Kobe today.

First reports merely said he was alive, without indicating what had happened to him since he dropped from sight at Yokohama on July 20, when he arrived there aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Asia, en route back to China.

Famed for his success in establishing a refugee zone at Shanghai during the height of hostilities, the French priest had just returned from a tour of the United States where he raised thousands of dollars for relief work.

C.N.R. DEFICIT

MONTREAL, July 28 (C.P.)—Canadian National Railways showed net revenue deficit of $5,679,982 for the first six months of 1938, compared with net revenue surplus of $6,667,948 for the corresponding period last year.

BLOW FROM GOLF CLUB KILLS PLAYER'S WIFE

LAKE CHARLES, La., July 28 (A.P.)—An accidental blow from a golf club in the hands of her husband during play on the municipal golf course caused the death of Mrs. W. G. Caldwell, Jr., wife of an official of the Louisiana State Employment Service.

Mrs. Caldwell was standing beside her husband, Sunday, as he raised the club to play and the club-head struck her near the left temple. She never regained consciousness.

NOTED DIRECTOR HAS BRIEF VISIT

Alexander Kioransky Delighted With Work of Master Class Here

Alexander Kioransky, whose name is familiar to theatre-goers and drama students all over this continent, was a visitor in the city yesterday and the previous afternoon, making a hurried call here for the express purpose of seeing what is being accomplished by the Drama Summer School, which has been in progress here for the past six weeks.

Dramatic director of the Cornish School, Seattle, Mr. Kioransky came here from the Moscow Art Theatre, Russia, of whose principles he is one of the outstanding exponents on the Western coast of America. He did not announce his intention of coming here, and everyone was completely taken by surprise when he was discovered sitting quietly among the little group of parents who had been invited to attend one of the regular classes.

ENTHUSIASTS

Addressing the students, he stated that when he heard that the drama students here had of their own volition requested that no play should be produced during the course, he decided to come over to see what was being done by such enthusiasts who were prepared to forego public honors in order to continue their studies.

Mr. Kioransky dealt then with some of the psychological as well as technical aspects of the drama, particularly speaking of the approach to the drama. He congratulated the class on the excellent progress it had made in such a short time. He also expressed the hope that in some way they would be able to continue their group studies together after the conclusion of the Summer course, so that the benefits of their work might not be lost. He was astounded, he said, at the splendid work being done here.

In the near future Mr. Kioransky will leave for New York, having recently been appointed dramatic director to the theatre sponsored by Helen Hayes, Katherine Cornell, Burgess Meredith and Mme. Ouspanskia. Don May, who has been conducting the stage-craft class at the Drama Summer School here, has been appointed stage manager at the same New York theatre.

The school here opened on June 20, with twenty-eight students, the instructors being Hector Cant and Don May, both of the Cornish School, Seattle. The course will conclude next Monday. Classes have been held in the Junior High School, Fort Street, and several of the students' parents were present on Wednesday evening at the same time as Mr. Kioransky, and saw some examples of concentration exercises by one, two and larger numbers of students.

Mr. Kioransky left by the morning boat for Seattle yesterday.

TO HOLD TAG DAY FOR RESCUE HOME

Annual Collection in Aid of Salvation Army Institution Set For Tomorrow

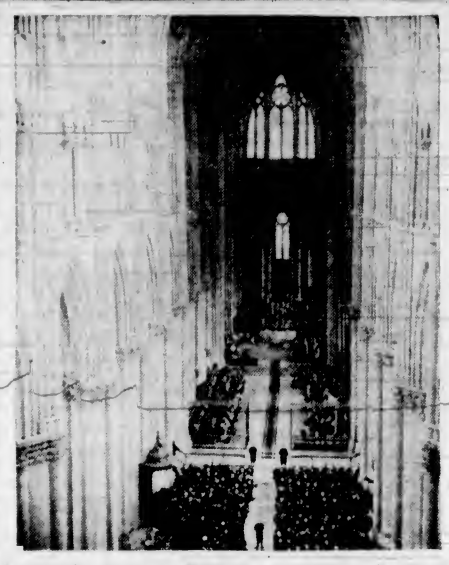

The annual tag day will be held here tomorrow in aid of the Salvation Army Rescue Home caring for the needs of unfortunate girls and their babies in British Columbia. The work in this home is ever becoming an increasingly valuable asset to the city of Victoria and surrounding district.

Without seeking publicity or praise, the Rescue Home has for many years carried on a community service work which has had far-reaching and beneficial results. The Salvation Army now operates a chain of similar homes across Canada, in which hundreds of unfortunate girls in need of the care the Army can give, are looked after. The standard of nursing is pronounced to be excellent, those giving their lives to this great work being experts in their line.

The hospital side of the work is only one feature of the activities of this home. The real objective of the institution is to build character and inculcate principles that will remake broken lives. Remnants in life's struggle have always been prized and remade in wondrous manner by the Salvation Army.

Persons wishing to contribute by mail to the "Babies' Day" fund are requested to forward donations to Captain A. Dale, the Salvation Army, Box 781.

Rheims' Glory Restored

A remarkable picture of Rheims Cathedral, taken during the re-dedication service a few days ago. The great cathedral was badly damaged during the Great War, and the cost of restoration is estimated at $1,000,000. It was solemnly reopened in the presence of President Lebrun, and a distinguished assembly of clergy and diplomats representing many countries.

CANADA'S WHEAT SUPPLY

OTTAWA, July 28 (CP).—The visible supply of Canadian wheat on July 22 was 21,773,554 bushels compared with 23,335,957 a week ago and 35,196,133 on the corresponding date a year ago, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today.

Killed Brothers For Burning Barn

MILFORD, Pa., July 28 (AP).—A Northeastern Pennsylvanian farmer surrendered to state police today and told Corporal Charles Knight he shot two brothers, found dead near his barn because they set the building afire. Knight said the farmer, Dominick Russo, forty, told him: "I caught them setting my barn afire and I let them have it."

TRUSTEES DEAL WITH TENDERS

City School Board Considers Quotations for New Year's Supplies

Consideration of tenders received for the supply of various items occupied the attention of the City School Board at a meeting last evening.

Six tenders were received for the supply of coal for all schools during the coming year, and that of Walter M. Walker was accepted. Two tenders for the supply of cordwood were referred to the building and grounds committee for a report. To this committee were referred, also, tenders for repairs to the roof of the Central Junior High School, for ploughing the playgrounds near Sir James Douglas School, and for electrical work in the drafting room at the Central Junior High School.

The board accepted the tender of Canadian Fairbanks-Morse, Limited, for a charger for the time clocks at the Victoria High School. Tenders for scientific supplies and equipment for the Victoria High School were referred to the education committee and the inspector, with power to act.

INSURANCE COVERAGE

The finance committee reported that among insurance policies expiring on August 1 were ten written by companies no longer represented in the city. Policies with these companies totaled $62,000, and the committee recommended that $5,000 insurance should be given to each of nine other agencies, that additional coverage amounting to $10,000 should be given to three agencies already holding insurance for the board, and that the allocation of the remaining $7,000 of insurance should be left in the hands of the committee. This recommendation was adopted.

Arrangements were made for the annual vacations of board officials and members of the office staff, it being mentioned that the school board office would not at any time be closed.

Brief consideration was given to a plan to modernize the board's offices, and it was decided to request the city council to undertake the work in accordance with the plan.

RELIEF LISTS REPORTED LESS

June Totals in Provincial Records Showed Reduction by 7,422 Names

Subject to final recheck, British Columbia official relief lists were lower by 7,422 names in June, provincial relief officers reported yesterday; total lists containing 50,608 names, compared with 58,030 names in the corresponding month last year.

The list included 11,013 heads of families and 4,779 single men on whom were dependent 33,916 other individuals.

Divergence in the reports at one point led to a recheck which is not expected to change the total list in any material respect, it was explained by E. W. Griffiths, provincial relief administrator.

PLANS MADE FOR MAYORS' PARLEY

Tentative Programme Drawn Up For Dinner and Conference In Empress Hotel Aug. 4

A tentative programme has been drawn up by Alderman W. H. Davies for the first conference of mayors and civic officials of the Pacific Northwest, to be held in the Empress Hotel on August 4.

Dinner will commence at 6 p.m., and afterwards an address of welcome will be given by Mayor Andrew McGavin, and an explanation will be given by Alderman Davies of the purpose of the meeting.

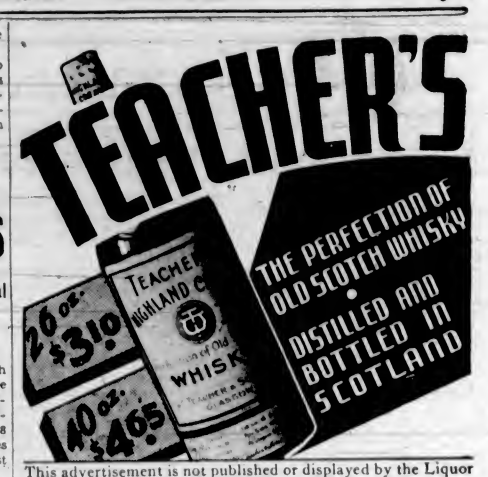

Subjects for debate during the discussion period will include the 1939 San Francisco Fair, and prospects for attracting Fair visitors and visitors generally to other parts of the Pacific Northwest; celebration plans for 1939, and the arrangement of celebrations in individual cities of the Northwest in the best interests of all concerned and ways and means of publicizing programmes by cities, both individually and collectively.

Resolutions will be invited on the following subjects: The question of the continuance of the conference, and the date and place for the next meeting; the appointment of a chairman and officers, and their duties; the preparation of individual celebration programmes by cities; the correlation of celebration programmes, and the publicizing of them.

Reference will be made by Mayor McGavin to items of Victoria's Navy Week celebration programme.

Rosser, former head of the American Federation of Labor-Teamsters' Union in the Portland district who was convicted of arson by a Polk County jury recently, today filed motions for a new trial and for an arrest of judgment. PICTURE OFFERS NEW LOVE TEAM

Wayne Morris and Priscilla Lane Have Starring Roles in "Men Are Such Fools"

Do careers and marriage mix is the question posed by "Men Are Such Fools," which will open today at the Dominion Theatre. The answer is presented in a thoroughly entertaining manner by the screen's newest and most delightful love team—Wayne Morris and Priscilla Lane.

Based on a national magazine serial by the keenly observant Faith Baldwin and made into a screen play with sympathetic understanding "Men Are Such Fools" deals with the problem of whether a wife should continue to work outside the home after her marriage.

The cast also includes Humphrey Bogart, Hugh Herbert, Johnnie Davis and Penny Singleton.

ATLAS FEATURES RITZ BROTHERS

Trio of Comedians Appear With Tony Martin in Film "Kentucky Moonshine"

The three Ritz Brothers, taking a hilarious, tongue-in-the-cheek poke at the radio broadcasting studio's penchant for talent quests, are scheduled to open today at the Atlas Theatre in "Kentucky Moonshine."

In the Twentieth Century-Fox film the now established madmen of the movies have added many extra film frenzies to provide merriment.

In addition to the three Ritz Brothers, Tony Martin and Marjorie Weaver, the cast includes Slim Summerville, John Carradine, Wally Vernon, Berton Churchill and Eddie Collins.

COLUMBIA THEATRE Radio's greatest singing cowboy, Smith Ballew, becomes a two-fisted singing buckaroo of the Western plains at his rousing best as he stars in Zane Grey's smashing story, "Roll Along, Cowboy," Twentieth Century-Fox release, featuring Cecilia Parker and Stanley Fields, at the Columbia Theatre.

OAK BAY THEATRE Clarke Gable and Loretta Young find themselves in a snowy setting as the lovers of 20th Century's filmization of Jack London's "Call of the Wild." Jack Oakie provides the comedy, and Buck, the St. Bernard, makes his movie bow as London's immortal dog hero in this production, showing at the Oak Bay Theatre.

AMUSEMENTS

On the Screen

Atlas—"Kentucky Moonshine," starring the Ritz Brothers
Capitol—Danielle Darrieux in "The Rage of Paris."
Columbia—"Roll Along, Cowboy," starring Smith Ballew.
Dominion—Wayne Morris in "Men Are Such Fools."
Oak Bay — "The Call of the Wild," starring Clark Gable.
Plaza—Hugh Herbert in "Sh! The Octopus."

PLAZA THEATRE Margaret Irving, currently in Warner Bros.' mystery - farce, "Sh! the Octopus," now playing at the Plaza Theatre, won a world - wide beauty contest conducted by international newspapers in 1919. Though she was only fourteen, she won in competition with 500,000 entries, who submitted more than four tons of photographs.

CAPITOL THEATRE Danielle Darrieux, Hollywood's new French star, appears in "The Rage of Paris," now at the Capitol Theatre. Miss Darrieux is new, different, charming, vibrant and amazingly volatile. She can switch from grave to gay, from coy sweetness to homeric rage, in the twinkling of an eye.

"THE BEGGAR PRINCE" IS COMING TO PLAZA

Filmed from Carl Millbecker's famous operetta, "The Beggar Prince" will open Monday at the Plaza Theatre. It bristles with pomp, pageantry, elaborate sets, even more elaborate costumes and all the old-world songs one could wish to hear. It is a charming picture, colorfully told and splendidly acted, and can be considered as one of U.F.A.'s foremost screen productions.

For non-German-speaking filmgoers, the production has been furnished with English subtitles, which clearly define the German dialogue and action.

That Body of Yours by JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

DON'T WORRY ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

Most of us believe that the greatest asset or gift in life is to have good health. To have brains, ambition, money, all give life more fullness, but cannot make up for poor health and a weak body.

If then, good health is the greatest human asset, no one can be blamed for trying to attain and maintain good health. Regular visits to the physician, the dentist, the oculist and optometrist should be in the life plan of everybody.

On the other hand there are some who appreciate good health but are so concerned about it that they worry constantly lest they lose it. These are the individuals who think and worry so much about health that they tire themselves physically and mentally; they are called neurasthenics. Socrates says that there is nothing in the world that so hinders us in making a proper demand on life as an exaggerated worry over our bodies.

The point, of course, is that there should be thought, not anxiety, about our bodies because an aching tooth or stomach, an infected tonsil, the sluggishness of the liver that manufactures insufficient bile and fails to remove poisons from the blood, the slowness of the gall bladder in emptying bile into the small intestine, can each so alter the thoughts of the mind and the actions of the body that we are not our real or true selves, and our own life and the life of those around us become changed.

Being anxious or worried, which is really a condition of chronic fear, not only fails to help, but can, as Professor Cannon of Harvard, has shown, cause real organic ailments in the body. This does not mean that you should think of these needs in a constructive way — common sense in diet, common sense in sleep, and common sense in exercise.

Common sense about food or sleep is reflected in your weight. If you can keep your weight to within five pounds of the ideal for the shape of your body (length and width of trunk not total height) you are fulfilling the body's needs and helping to lessen or prevent infection or other ailments due to underweight and overweight.

In regard to the third need of the body—exercise—we have but to remember Gladstone's statement, "All time and money spent in training the body pays a larger rate of interest than any other investment."

Little Stories for Bedtime

Peter Makes a Call

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Peter Rabbit was so tickled at finding Bob White and his family snug and safe in the shelter of poles and brush which Farmer Brown's Boy had built for them in the far corner of the Old Orchard where Johnny Chuck lives, that he kicked up his heels and squealed right out. Of course, Bob White heard him. Poking his pretty little brown, black and white head out of an opening between the sticks he invited Peter to come in and make them a call. This Peter was only too glad to do, but he had to hunt some time to find a place through which he could squeeze. Once inside he looked all about him with eyes shining with curiousity.

"My!" he exclaimed. "This is a regular castle, isn't it? And here I've been worrying and worrying for fear you were caught under that icy crust and were starving to death when all the time you were warm and comfortable with plenty to eat. I'm just never going to worry again about anybody else, so there!"

"Oh, Bob, I've such great news for you," he cried

Bob White laughed. "Most of us have enough to worry about with our own affairs without worrying about those of other folks, I've found," replied he. "Just the same it makes me feel good to think you cared enough for us to worry about us, Peter. I told you that there was going to be a storm and ice and that we wouldn't go to bed where the crust could make us prisoners."

"I know you did," confessed Peter, "but I couldn't think of any place you could go and so I couldn't help worrying. I had forgotten all about this place. Isn't it nice? I don't see why you haven't slept here every night. I would have if I had been in your place."

Bob White chuckled. "That sounds just like you, Peter," said he. "If I didn't think and look ahead any more than you do I'm afraid, very much afraid, that one of these fine days there would be no Bob White. If we lived here all the time how long do you suppose it would be before Reddy or Granny Fox found it out? Then we wouldn't have a minute's peace and sooner or later some of us would get caught. With this hard crust over everything this is very snug and safe, especially as no one but you and Farmer Brown's Boy knows yet that we are here. But when the snow is soft or there is no snow it is safer for us to change our sleeping place every night so that none of our enemies will know where to look for us."

"But not one of them could get you if they knew you were here," protested Peter. "Reddy Fox might be able to force his way in, but it would be hard work. If he did all you would have to do would be to slip out on the other side."

"And perhaps find Granny Fox waiting there to pounce on us, or Roughleg the Hawk ready to swoop down before we could possibly fly. No, I thank you, Peter. This place is perfectly lovely at a time like this, and it was lovely of Farmer Brown's Boy to make it for us, but it is for use only in time of need. Do you see?" Bob White cocked his head on one side and looked up at Peter.

"Yes," said Peter, slowly. Then a sudden thought popped into his head. "Oh, Bob, I've such great news for you!" he cried. "You won't be bothered by Reddy Fox any more!" Talking as fast as his tongue could go Peter told all about what had happened over near the dear Old Brier Patch that day and how he had seen Farmer Brown's Boy carry off Reddy over his shoulder. Bob White was almost as excited as Peter and kept interrupting with questions. Just as Peter finished telling of what he had seen there was a great noise from Farmer Brown's henyard, a great screaming of many biddies. What could it mean? Peter looked at Bob White and Bob White looked at Peter, and there was a question in the eyes of both.

How to Overcome Piles And Rectal Soreness

If you are annoyed with itching piles or rectal soreness, do not neglect the same or run the risk of an operation. Any itching, soreness or painful passage of stool, is nature's warning, and proper treatment should be secured at once. For this purpose get from MacFarlane and Vancouver Drug Stores, or any druggist, a package of Hemroid and use as directed. This formula, which is used internally, quickly relieves the itching and soreness, and aids in healing the sore, tender spots. Hemroid is a physician's prescription, and is highly recommended. It is easy to use, and it seems the height of folly for anyone to risk an operation when a simple remedy, which is so pleasant to use may be had at such a reasonable cost. (Advt.)

Club Plans Sail To West Side of Spit Off Sidney

The third of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club's annual cruises will be held during the coming week-end, when Rear Commodore F. C. Holden will lead the fleet to a rendezvous on the west side of the Sidney Spit, there to be met by several boats belonging to Up-Island members and others who are on holiday cruises.

A power boat race will be held on the cruise north tomorrow afternoon, for which entries have been received from J. F. Dick (Jeran), Vice-Commodore Colonel E. Pepler (Yolanda II) and F. N. Ohrt (Tamara). Other power cruisers are expected to take part in the race, but have not yet been officially entered. The boats will leave Cadboro Bay at some time in the afternoon so as to cross the finishing line, between the bell buoy and the beacon on Sidney Spit, at 5 o'clock.

Headed by Rear-Commodore Holden's cutter Richmond II, the auxiliary cruisers, stars and international dinghies of the club fleet, and boats of any non-members desiring to take part in the cruise, will sail from Cadboro Bay early in the afternoon, and the whole fleet will cruise home on Sunday afternoon.

Commodore E. P. Ashe's auxiliary cruiser Idle Moment will be at Sidney Spit to take the times of the power boats.

A Teheran (Iran) newspaper recently published a five-column account of a lecture on marriage given to the Iranian Women's Club in Teheran by a local savant. The lecture was notable, as it treated the subject from Christian standards of marriage and family life, though the lecturer and audience were Moslems

LIBERAL GROUPS MEET AT PICNIC

SHAWNIGAN LAKE, July 28.—An enjoyable basket picnic was held in H. Joyce's field at Shawnigan on Wednesday afternoon, under the joint auspices of the Cobble Hill and Shawnigan Liberal Associations. An attractive programme of races for children and adults was efficiently run off in the afternoon, including tugs-of-war and horseshoe pitching, side attractions, a tombola and free ice cream. After a basket supper, a novelty fancy-dress softball game between the Shawnigan and Cobble Hill Associations was staged. A dance in the S.L.A.A. Hall topped the successful day.

Today or Saturday, at Willows. Time well spent. Visit the Flower Show.

What Today Means

"LEO"

If July 29 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.; from 2:15 to 4:15 p.m., and from 8:15 to 10:15 p.m. The danger periods are from 8:15 to 10:15 a.m.; from 6:15 to 8:15 p.m., and from 10:15 p.m. until midnight.

You will have sufficient ambition to make real efforts to accomplish whatever you undertake in a satisfactory fashion this day. Those who try going through the day in a lackadaisical, disinterested manner, are apt to have many disappointments, and a feeling of deep dissatisfaction with themselves. You ought to avoid making pessimistic remarks or encouraging depressing conversations, for both will be responsible for most of this day's discouraging reactions. Hard and consistent work runs an excellent chance of being well rewarded. Social activities planned this day ought to be very successful. Conditions might inspire sentimental remarks and for affectionate actions, which are apt to be appreciated. Be on the lookout for Lady Luck. Married and engaged couples, as well as those who are eligible Romeos and Juliets, must not throw conventionality thoughtlessly aside, if they expect to get through this day without complications.

If a woman and July 29 is your birthday, in matters involving your happiness you can be very optimistic. You most likely have a gentle nature, but a marvelous amount of resolution and firmness whenever occasion requires. You must be in a receptive frame of mind this day, for through friendly calls and suggestions a great deal of happiness may come into your life. You are likely to find a most promising career as an actress, author, teacher, interior decorator, musician, or possibly as a sales representative or real estate agent.

The child born on July 29, usually appears to others as a bit of perpetual motion. Quick-moving hands and feet are apt to be valuable assets for this youngster.

If a man and July 29 is your natal day, with patience and courage you should be able to overcome any social or financial difficulty. As a physician, educator, antiquarian, engineer, inventor, artist, industrial sales engineer, writer or politician you might surpass your most sanguine expectations.

NOT SO BAD

A friend of the family was in the habit of teasing the little six-year-old girl, and one day he finished his attack by saying, "I don't love you."

"Oh, but you've got to love me!" said the child.

"Why?" asked the man.

"Because the Bible says that you must love them that hate you."

SMOOTH TRIP FOR AORANGI

Trans-Pacific Mail Liner Docks Here From Antipodes and Honolulu

From Australia, New Zealand, Fiji and Hawaii, R.M.Ms. Aorangi arrived at Rithet Piers well ahead of schedule at 2:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The motorship left for Vancouver at 5 o'clock and will return here on Wednesday to sail for Honolulu and the Antipodes.

Aboard the liner were 101 first-class, 146 second-class and ninety-five third-class passengers. Sixty travelers left the ship here.

She carried 325 bags of mail for discharge here and 920 tons of cargo for this port and Vancouver.

Officers reported a smooth and uneventful voyage since leaving Sydney, New South Wales, on July 7. The passage from Honolulu was also without event.

TRAVEL ON LINER

Passengers aboard the Aorangi included Dr. A. G. Butchers, prominent educationist of Wellington, New Zealand; A. E. Odlin, timber importer of Auckland and Wellington, New Zealand, accompanied by Mrs. Odlin; Capt. A. S. Dalgleish, of the Union Steamship Company, Limited, proceeding to London to take over a new freighter for the company; H. C. Fenton, London representative of the Australian National Travel Association; R. W. Everitt, an author proceeding to England; A. Cowling, Australian secretary of Toc H, accompanied by Mrs. Cowling; W. Wood, managing director of the Wood Shoe Clinic, Vancouver, and Lady E. G. Howse, with her daughter, Miss A. N. Howse.

Fifty-six members of the Fernandez Extravaganza, an Hawaiian troupe of vaudeville entertainers, were also on the vessel en route to the United States. Male members of the company were dressed in brightly-hued shirts of native cloth.

Miss Neva Hedden, a member of the trans-Pacific crew of the yawl Teal, was welcomed here by Roy Durhack and Francis Langdon, on her arrival aboard the Aorangi.

TO RETURN HOME

Accompanied by Miss Hedden, Durhack and Langdon sailed the thirty-five-foot yawl from Honolulu to Port Angeles in thirty-one days, arriving in the Straits in May, 1937. From here Miss Hedden will proceed to Bremerton, her home town.

Also on the liner was a party of twenty boys from the Waitaki Boys' High School, Oamaru, New Zealand, in charge of F. Milner, the headmaster. They were cordially welcomed by Hon. Dr. George M. Weir, Minister of Education, in a message dispatched to the vessel.

Proceeding to Banff, the party will be met by a number of boys from English and Canadian public schools. They will attend a youth movement conference at the resort. The New Zealand boys plan to spend from August 24 to 31 on Vancouver Island before returning home on R.M.S. Niagara.

BRISTOL BAY PACK AHEAD THIS YEAR

JUNEAU, Alaska, July 28 (AP).—A 2,000,000-case salmon pack in Bristol Bay was forecast today by the United States Fisheries Bureau.

Figures covering the period ending July 23 set the Bristol Bay pack at 1,809,223 cases, or 374,835 more than for the same period in 1937.

The season ended Tuesday for all but the Ugashik River area, which was to complete operations today.

UNION SEAMEN HOLD UP MAIL

Inland Boatmen Contend Port Angeles Ship Tahoe Is Unfair

SEATTLE, July 28 (AP).—Captain J. M. Fox, Inland Boatmen's Union business agent, said United States mail destined for Victoria was delayed several hours today when union members refused to carry it from Port Angeles.

He said the mail should have been carried by the mail boat Tahoe, which is in drydock here for repairs, but that the Tahoe's owner rushed the mail to Port Angeles by truck and attempted to have it carried across the strait on the chartered tug, Olympia, as freight. The union forbade members to handle it.

E. M. Brodell, operator of the Tahoe, returned to Seattle and attempted to launch the Tahoe and make the trip himself, but unionists picketed the boat and refused to allow it to leave the drydock.

Fox said the picket line dispersed when Brodell agreed to meet union officials for arbitration tomorrow. The union contends Brodell operates with a non-union crew.

ATLANTIC PLANE ROUTE FORECAST

Chairman of Imperial Airways Limited Refers to Recent Flight of Mercury

LONDON, Eng., July 28.—An exchange of friendly greetings between the chairman of Imperial Airways and the chief executive of Trans-Canada Air Lines was effected on completion by the seaplane Mercury of her first round trip voyage from Foynes to Montreal and from Montreal to Southampton.

Sir John C. W. Reith, chairman of Imperial Airways, Limited, airway terminus, London, had written to S. J. Hungerford, president of Trans-Canada Air Lines in Montreal in these terms: "Dear Mr. Hungerford: As the present flight of Mercury from Great Britain to America is to be the forerunner of regular services in which your company will co-operate, I am sending you this letter of greeting and good wishes.

"I look forward to the establishment of regular services in the near future and to closer association with yourself and with Trans-Canada Airways."

REPLY IS MADE

In reply to Sir John Reith, Mr. Hungerford wrote a letter which was carried by the Mercury when the seaplane left Boucherville, saying:

"My dear Sir John: I appreciate very much your kind message of greetings sent to me by Captain Donald Bennett, of the Mercury. The remarkable non-stop flight of the ship from Foynes to Montreal represents another stage in the development of trans-Atlantic air transport, and, as president of Trans-Canada Air Lines, this successful achievement was particularly gratifying to me as an indication that our joint services may before long aid in extending the Empire's air communications.

"It is gratifying to us here to be able to co-operate with the Imperial Air Service in the establishment of this additional important link. I heartily reciprocate your greetings and good wishes."

TRANSPORT MINISTER HEARD ON PROTECTION

VANCOUVER, July 28 (CP).—Hon. C. D. Howe, Canadian Minister of Transport, said here today the National Harbor Board of Canada expected the same fire protection services as any other taxpayer on the Vancouver waterfront, when questioned about the fire which destroyed the Canadian Pacific Steamship Pier D here yesterday.

"Our attitude is clear," he told newspapermen. "We have become taxpayers and expect the same services as other taxpayers. If the city wants to organize a fireboat, we are ready to do what other wanterfront operators do to cooperate."

HUGE VESSEL IS LAUNCHED

New Mauretania Slides Down Ways Amid Public Acclaim at Birkenhead

BIRKENHEAD, England, July 28 (CP).—The new Mauretania was launched today amid tremendous public acclaim, and seamen, eyes misty, seemed to hear above the whistles of craft on the Mersey, the siren of the old Mauretania, once "Queen of the Atlantic" and now scrap.

The hull of the 33,000-ton trans-Atlantic liner trundled down the ways, greased with seven tons of tallow, and ploughed several hundred yards out into the mile-wide Mersey Estuary.

Lady Bates, wife of Sir Percy Bates, chairman of the Cunard White Star Line, performed the launching ceremony.

Biggest product of English shipyards, the new liner established a marine record before leaving the ways. Her keel was laid May 24, 1937, and since then her entire hull structure, comprising 17,000 tons of steel, was added—a feat unprecedented in shipbuilding history.

The Mauretania is intended for the lower-price tourist trade and her maiden voyage will coincide with the opening of the New York World Fair in 1939.

Ship Tonnage Idle

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Laid-up tonnage here during the past few months has resulted in the unemployment of approximately 5,000 crew members, according to figures submitted to the director of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation. The report shows 352,802 tons of shipping was inactive, chiefly because of lack of business at the end of the quarter, June 30. The 157 vessels laid up normally employ 4,655 men.

COLUMBIA PACKER DIES AT ASTORIA

ASTORIA, Ore., July 28 (AP).—Oscar A. Wirkkala, vice-president of the Columbia River Packers' Association, died at his home here today after a heart attack at the Astoria Golf and Country Club. Wirkkala rose from office boy to an executive of the Columbia area's largest fish packing firm.

PACK OF SALMON SHOWS DECREASE

Fisheries Department Figures Are Published in Fifth Weekly Bulletin

VANCOUVER, July 28 (CP).—British Columbia's canned salmon pack totals 204,862 cases this year, according to the fifth weekly bulletin issued by the chief supervisor of fisheries here. This was a decrease of 36,960 cases from the corresponding period in the four-year cycle when 241,822 cases were packed.

The sockeye pack dropped 18,270 cases from the total of 169,626 for the corresponding period in 1934. Springs were off 1,380 cases from the 8,872 aggregate at the same time four years ago.

Other totals to date this year compared with 1934 totals in brackets were: Steelheads, 331 (508); bluebacks, 15,645 (17,732); cohoes, 11,341 (18,736); pinks, 13,508 (24,631), and chums, 5,189 (1,717).

WILKINS IS TO JOURNEY SOUTH

Noted Explorer Seeking Surgeon for Antarctic Expedition Next Month

VANCOUVER, July 28 (CP).—Explorer Sir Hubert Wilkins arrived in Vancouver today by plane from Seattle with the expressed intention of recruiting a surgeon for his next South Pole expedition.

Sir Hubert said he and his party were scheduled to leave New York by steamer early in August for Capetown, South Africa, carrying a single-engined Northrup Delta plane.

At Capetown, the explorer stated, the plane would be transferred to a small steamer for the trip to Enderby, on the South Polar cap, where a base will be set up preparatory to making a 2,000-mile non-stop flight from Enderby directly over the South Pole to Little America, base for the previous Richard Byrd expeditions.

The expedition will be officially known as the Sir Hubert Wilkins-Lincoln Ellsworth Expedition. Its purpose is to gather meteorological data in hope of interesting some nation in establishing meteorological bases at Enderby and Little America.

With the rapid increase in international flying, such information would be of great value, Sir Hubert said.

Mr. Farley and his party, which includes his two daughters, Elizabeth and Ann; Ambrose O'Connell, executive assistant, and Edward L. Roddan, assistant director of publicity, Democratic National Committee, will arrive in Victoria tomorrow afternoon, between 12:30 and 1 o'clock, aboard the United States Coast Guard revenue cutter Haida, docking at Ogden Point.

Prior to his trip to Alaska, from which he is now returning, Mr. Farley, who has been chairman of the Democratic National Committee in the United States since 1932, attended the national rally convention of the Young Democratic Clubs of America, which was held in Seattle on July 14, 15 and 16, and delivered one of the principal addresses.

APPOINTED IN 1933

Mr. Farley was appointed Postmaster-General of the United States in President Franklin D. Roosevelt's Cabinet in March, 1933, and was reappointed to that post on January 22, 1937. He maintains a high position in the Government of the United States and is a fluent speaker. It is anticipated that a large representation of the Canadian Club members will be present to accord a warm welcome to the distinguished guest.

The club rule limiting attendance only to members in good standing will be strictly adhered to. New applicants will be given the privilege of attending the dinner. Members may obtain their tickets at Cochrane's Drug Store, Douglas Street.

AIR MISSION IS IN OTTAWA

Gathering Information From Government Regarding Industry in Canada

OTTAWA, July 28 (CP).—Two members of the British Air Ministry's mission to Canada, R. F. Handley-Page, aircraft industrialist, and A. H. Self, second deputy under-secretary to the Air Ministry, arrived here from Quebec late tonight.

The leader of the mission, Sir Hardman Lever, who is in the United States, will join the group August 10, and the following day Sir Edward Ellington, air marshal of the Royal Air Force, en route to Canada from New Zealand, will complete the party.

The mission will be here until Monday when they will proceed to Montreal to discuss matters with representatives of the Canadian aircraft construction industry.

"We will treat with the industry as a whole, not individually," said Mr. Self in an interview tonight.

The purpose of only half of the mission coming to Ottawa was to obtain all available information relating to the industry and in possession of the National Defence Department. Armed with that, the two envoys would be in a better position to talk matters over with the industrialists and so "clear the ground for the arrival of Sir Hardman Lever and Sir Edward Ellington," said Mr. Self.

Asked if the mission's function was to place orders, Mr. Self declared the party was here to study the Canadian situation in all its aspects, and to negotiate a plan which, however, would have to have the approval of the British Government before it became operative.

With the party came Commander J. M. Robb, commandant of the Central Flying School of the British Air Ministry. His duty is to examine what facilities exist in Canada for training airmen here for the Royal Air Force.

"The senses of birds and animals are in general much keener than ours. For instance, the cat can see better in the darkness. Can you tell we what smells better than we do?"

"The lily."

DEALING BLOW TO TRADITION

War Secretary Introducing Plan Making British Army More Democratic

LONDON, July 28 (CP).—War Secretary Leslie Hore-Belisha today announced to Parliament a tradition-shattering plan to introduce a new democracy into the ranks of army officers and lower average ages of officers through earlier retirement ranks.

Under the plan, which has to be approved by Parliament, a career as a commissioned officer will be open to "any suitable candidate, whatever his means." Both sides of the House of Commons welcomed the plan.

STEPS UP PROMOTION

The War Secretary's plan also includes a method of stepping up promotions of deserving officers, replacing the present system under which advancement comes only when there are vacancies.

The War Secretary indicated the new plan would go into effect next Monday. He gave an idea of its importance by stating that on that date more than two thousand officers will be promoted from lieutenant to captain or from captain to major.

Under the new promotions plan, subalterns will be automatically promoted to the grade of captain after a maximum of eight years in the lower ranks, provided they have fulfilled necessary conditions of aptitude and merit.

ASSURED OF RANK

After a maximum of nine years as captain, an officer will be promoted to the rank of major, and if he began his career at the average age will be assured of remaining ten years with this rank.

If, by the end of ten years, he has not been promoted to a lieutenant-colonel, he will be required to retire. This plan, the War Secretary pointed out, does not take into account promotions which might be made because of superior qualifications and does not mean that officers will be automatically promoted if they do not merit it.

The system is rounded out by a reduction in the retirement age. Generals at fifty-seven, instead of sixty-two; colonels at fifty-five, instead of fifty-seven, and lieutenant-colonels at fifty, instead of fifty-five. Pensions will be increased.

A conscientious little girl was explaining to her younger brother that it is wrong to work on Sunday. "Well, policemen work on Sunday," said the boy. "Don't they go to heaven?"

"No," replied his sister. "They do not need policemen up there."

A truck driver and his mate were going to work one morning when they passed a small car, badly smashed up. The bonnet was hanging on a pillar-box, while the other parts were scattered around.

"Crikey," said the truck driver, "Blowed if they ain't trying to post 'em now."

"You were at a disadvantage when you met that bear without your gun," suggested the sweet young thing.

"Yes," conceded the famous hunter. "I was a stranger in the country and hadn't any road maps."

LAST MESSAGE IS PUBLISHED

Queen Would Be Remembered by Rumania as "Mother of All"

BUCHAREST, July 29 (CP-Havas).—To a grieving nation today was revealed the last message of Dowager Queen Marie, who died last week at the age of sixty-three.

The undated "spiritual testament," which was accompanied by a will registered June 29, 1933, disposing of her property to charities, her family and her friends, asked Rumania to remember her lovingly by the name it had given her during the Great War, "Mother of All."

The letter recalled the first arrival in Rumania of the seventeen-year-old princess, granddaughter of Queen Victoria and bride of Prince Ferdinand, "without experience but proud of my British birth."

"When I adopted Rumanian nationality, however, I strove to be a good Rumanian," she wrote.

BEQUESTS TO CHARITY

To King Carol the queen left her Caicic castle. The revenues of other properties will be divided between charitable societies and the personnel of her house. An income of 120,000 French francs ($4,500) was set aside for her sister, the Grand Duchess Victoria Melita of Russia. Other legacies were granted to her son, Prince Nicholas, and to her daughter, Queen-Mother Marie of Yugoslavia.

To another daughter, the Hapsburg Archduchess Ileana, she left the Castle of Bran, with the obligation of sheltering on its grounds a branch of the Women's Christian Association.

PICKPOCKET SCHOOL FOUND IN EGYPT

CAIRO (BUP). — Blackboard instruction for pickpockets and regular courses of study were revealed when a notorious pickpocket, Hassan Aly Al Zayat, appeared before the Summary Court here.

The "school" was Hassan's bedroom. Hassan, police said, gave regular daily instruction to his class. The room contained chalk, diagrams and dummy figures for advanced pupils, in addition to blackboards. Part of the course consisted of "field practice work," by which each pupil went out as an understudy. Examinations were held monthly. Merit was rewarded with free cinema tickets.

Hassan was not ashamed of his "school."

"Am I doing anything wrong?" he asked the court. "I am teaching young Egyptians to be quick-witted. In fact, I am performing a service to humanity."

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28 (AP).—The California State Supreme Court today upheld the constitutionality of the California "Unfair Practices Act," which prohibits merchants from selling goods at below cost "for the purpose of injuring competitors and destroying competition."

THIS NEW GASOLINE IMPROVEMENT IS PATENTED!
No. 357976

Esso and 3-Star contain exclusive solvent that dissolves gum...fights carbon gives extra power and mileage

When the Government gives a patent, it indicates that the product has new, useful and improved characteristics. The new formula for Esso and 3-Star has been granted a patent by the Canadian Government. These gasolines now contain an exclusive solvent which dissolves gum and checks the formation of carbon. This is a definite contribution to the efficient operation of your engine.

This solvent should not be confused with lubricating oils sometimes added to gasolines. Ample lubrication is provided by Imperial lubricants. The sole purpose of this solvent is to dissolve gum and prevent sticky deposits from accumulating in your engine and robbing it of power.

If you use these new gasolines exclusively in a new car, it will retain its new, surging power indefinitely. In an old car you will notice a gradual but unmistakable improvement in performance. Esso and 3-Star with this new solvent are sold everywhere in Canada at no increase in price.

You have Two Choices of Performance . . .

Esso The finest motor fuel Imperial Oil has ever marketed at any price. It contains sufficient tetraethyl lead for maximum power and economy and smooth, cool running without "knock" or "ping". Now it also contains the exclusive solvent which dissolves gum and causes it to be blown out through the exhaust. The finest motor fuel made still more efficient.

3-STAR This famous regular-priced gasoline has long been noted for its exceptional power and mileage. Now it contains the exclusive new solvent that absorbs gum and checks the formation of engine deposits.

Double Victory Over Chicago Places Red Sox Within Two Games of Cleveland—Yankees Lose to St. Louis, 4-3—Pirates Beat Phils—Hubbell Scores Win for the Giants

(By the Associated Press)

Yankees did most of the homer-hitting, but the Browns won the ball game yesterday, handing the New Yorkers a 4-3 defeat at St. Louis behind Oral Hildebrand's seven-hit pitching.

The defeat—only game the Yanks lost in the four-game series—shaved the New Yorkers' American League lead to one game over Cleveland Indians, who were rained out.

All the Yankee runs came on homers. In the fourth, Joe DiMaggio walloped his eighteenth and "Twinkletoes" George Selkirk clouted his fourth. In the sixth, Lou Gehrig bounced his seventeenth off the top of the right field pavilion.

In Chicago, Boston's Red Sox slugged out two victories over the White Sox, winning the first game 13-8, and the second 8-5, to lift them within two games of the second-place Indians. Jimmy Foxx hit his twenty-eighth homer of the season in the first game as Boston got seventeen hits.

Detroit Tigers, at home, won their fifth straight game, hammering three Washington pitchers for a 12-4 victory and a clean sweep of the series.

In the National League, after holding the league-leading Pirates to one hit for six innings, Al Hollingsworth blew up and Pittsburgh scored seven runs to beat the Phillies, 9-2.

With the Phils ahead, 2-1, through Spud Davis' single in the second and Chuck Klein's double in the fourth, Paul Waner started the Pirates' big seventh by getting a base on balls.

HUBBELL WINS ANOTHER

At New York, old reliable Carl Hubbell put a stop to the Giants' losing landslide. He gave up seven hits, pitched shutout ball for eight innings and defeated St. Louis Cardinals 2-1 to end the New Yorkers' five-game losing streak.

Hubbell, who has been the only Giant pitcher to go the route since July 10, turned in his twelfth victory of the year. The win left the Giants five games behind the Pirates.

Linus Frey's two-base smash with the bases full in the fourth inning at Boston gave the Cincinnati Reds a 4-2 victory over Boston Bees and an even break in the current four-game series. Frey's hit scored three mates and spoiled Bobby Reis' first start on the mound for Boston.

Freddie "Schoolboy" Hutchinson pitched his seventeenth victory of the season Thursday night to defeat Sacramento, 6-3, for the second straight Seattle triumph in the Pacific Coast Baseball League.

Four runs in the sixth off Bill Schmidt clinched the game. The Senators made a fast finish, filling the bases on a walk and three singles, but Hutchinson pitched out with only one run against him. He fanned nine and walked three, allowing nine blows, one a homer by Pinch Hitter Nick Cullop.

At Los Angeles, the Angels battered three Portland pitchers for eighteen hits to win their third successive game from the Beavers, 9-1.

Portland had the bases loaded in the first inning, but Gene Lillard grabbed Frederick's line drive and doubled Jeffries off first, and then fanned Rosenberg to end the threat.

Whitey Hilcher, who started on the mound for Portland, retired in the first inning under a four-run bombardment before he had put out an Angel batter. George Darrow replaced him and halted the massacre.

Ken Douglas relieved Darrow in the sixth after doubles by Lillard, Carpenter and English and Rothrock's homer had brought in four more Angel runs. Russell, Cihocki and Mayo singled to fill the bases again, but Collins flied to Rosenberg for the third out.

Rip Russell, young Angel first baseman, made five more hits for a total of nine in succession.

In the other Coast games, San Francisco shut out the lowly Oaks, 1-0, while San Diego defeated Hollywood, 3 and 1.

HENLEY MEET IS UNDER WAY

Western Oarsmen Flash Brilliant Form in Various Events

PORT DALHOUSIE, Ont., July 28 (CP)—Even a brilliant sprint performance by Frank Silvio, of New York, failed today to take opening honors at the fifty-sixth annual Royal Canadian Henley regatta from Western oarsmen. Not for years has the West been so prominent on Welland Canal waters.

Silvio won the featured open quarter-mile dash for scullers, final event of the day's programme, maintaining his unquestioned supremacy at the distance, but a great deal of Henley excitement was created by huskies from Regina, Winnipeg and Fort William.

Western crews were entered in two finals—and won them both. Fort William's Navy Blues won the junior fours in the remarkable time of 6:59, second fastest time made here since 1903 by crews of the same classification.

Regina Rowing Club, represented at Henley for the first time, captured the junior 150-pound fours. The rangy Saskatchewan crew, rowing smoothly and with great power, pulled away early from Buffalo West Sides and finished far ahead in 7:15.

WEST QUALIFIES

That wasn't all the West accomplished as the first of the three-day regatta was spent largely in running off heats. No Western crew or sculler failed to qualify.

Fort William's junior eight, competing in one of the most hotly-contested events of any Henley, qualified for tomorrow's final behind Buffalo West Sides. The difference was just a matter of length, with Lachine third.

Bug Gladwell, of Regina, came down in front in his heat in the junior 140-pound single sculls, and Jack Chambers, of Fort William, qualified for the final by placing second in the next heat to Frank Van Derkar, of Detroit.

The other Western sculler, Theo Dubois, of Winnipeg, placed second in his heat in the junior singles.

EPIGRAM WINNER OF TROPHY RACE

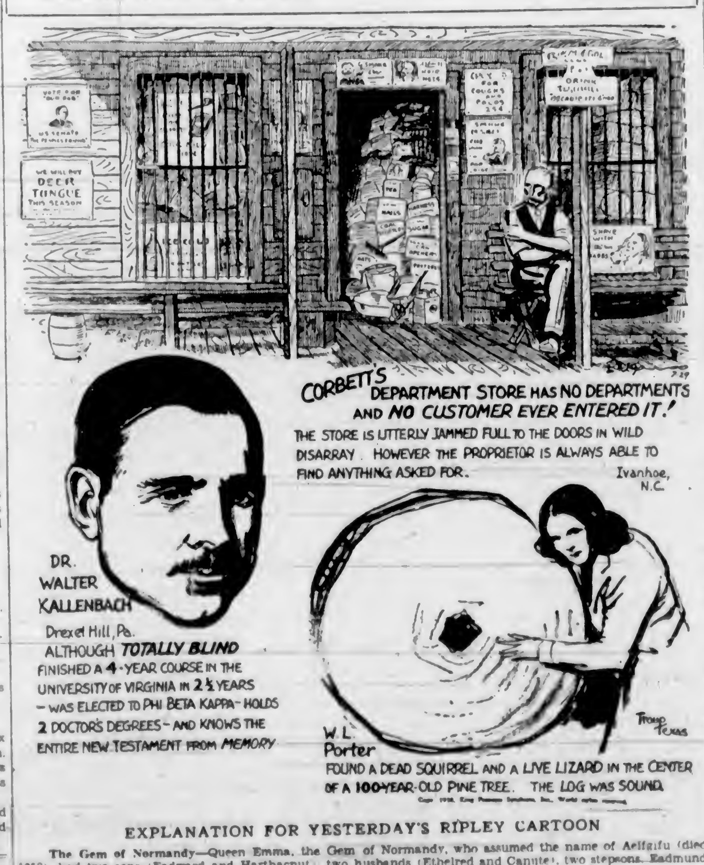

GOODWOOD, England, July 28 (CP)—James V. Rank's Epigram, son-in-law out of Flying Sally, today won the Goodwood Cup, defeating W. Barnett's Senior by half a length. Vaisseau Fantome, owned by Baron Edouard de Rothschild, was third in the field of eleven, five lengths behind Senior.

The race is over a distance of about two miles and five furlongs.

WILSON AND MURRAY BEATEN IN STRAIGHT SET TENNIS MATCHES

Former Trimmed by Fumiteru Nakano by Scores Of 6-2, 6-3, 6-2, and Murray Is Defeated by Jiro Yamagishi, 6-1, 6-3, 6-3—Doubles Match Is Carded Today—Wilson, Watt to Play

By DOUGLAS AMARON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL, July 28 (CP)—Canada's hopes for victory in her first Davis Cup challenge in three years all but vanished today after a double setback at the hands of two irresistable Japanese tennis aces.

Fumiteru Nakano and Jiro Yamagishi blasted aside the Dominion's finest singles players, Ross Wilson and Bobby Murray, in straight-set matches to give Japan a 2-0 lead at the end of the first day's play in the North American zone trial semi-finals.

Nakano, coupling speed and steadiness, whipped Wilson 6-2, 6-3, 6-2 in the first match. Yamagishi, playing faultless tennis, marched past Murray 6-1, 6-3, 6-3 in the second.

Victory in the doubles tomorrow when Wilson and Laird Watt, of Montreal, meet Nakano and Yamagishi would give Japan the round and move them into the zone final against Mexico or Australia. The series ends Saturday with two more singles matches.

But E. Henri Laframboise, genial little French-Canadian captain of the Dominion team, and his players would not admit defeat.

PERFECT TENNIS

"We were up against perfect tennis today," Laframboise said as he sat in the dressing room after the matches. "Tomorrow is another day and I expect Larry (Watt) and Ross to win."

Few observers, however, among the 2,500 spectators who sat two hours and a half in the blazing sun to watch the one-sided matches, conceded the Canadians much of a chance of getting past the Japanese pair in Saturday's closing singles matches even if Watt and Wilson win the doubles.

Nakano, whom Wilson was favored to beat, surprised even Team Captain Tamio Abe with his fine play. The twenty-four-year-old college student is the youngest member of the team.

Yamagishi blasted Murray right off the court. The sturdy ace, rated among the world's first ten, had forty-seven placements in his assortment of shots.

MEL DRANGA IN TRIUMPH

Seattle Veteran Advances To Quarters in Western Canada Tennis

VANCOUVER, July 28 (CP)—Mel Dranga, Seattle's hard-driving veteran of the nets, today moved into a favored position to lift the men's singles crown of the Western Canadian tennis championships as he disposed of one of the main California threats, Ronald Edwards, of San Jose, in the quarter-finals.

Dranga ousted the Californian, 8-6, 7-5, in two hard-fought sets. Edwards had trouble with his drop shots as the fast-stepping Seattle star played rapidly from baseline to net.

Harold Wagner, of San Francisco, who took a severe beating from Robert Stanford, of Los Angeles, in the quarter-finals for boys under eighteen, came back in the men's singles to beat F. Schroeder, of Glendale, 3-6, 6-2, 6-3.

Arthur Marx, son of the screen comedian, Groucho Marx, from Los Angeles, beat J. Sissons, Los Angeles, 6-2, 2-6, 6-3, and Robert Carrothers, of Coronado, Cal., defeated Bob Lloyd, of Portland, 6-2, 4-1, in the other two quarter-final matches.

Lloyd was forced to quit playing during the second set when he suffered a severe cramp in his thigh. Dr. T. M. Jones ordered the Portland youth to bed.

GIRLS UNDER EIGHTEEN

Daphne Buckell, Oakland, Cal., defeated M. McCurdy, Vancouver, 6-0, 6-1.

Barbara Duncan, Berkeley, Cal., defeated Muriel Birch, Vancouver, 6-2, 6-2.

Kay Staples, Duncan, B.C., defeated Jean Echhardt, Mission, B.C., 6-3, 6-4.

Mary Michie, Mission, defeated Virginia Hein, San Francisco, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4.

Dakers and Entwistle led the scoring brigade for the winners, scoring five and four goals respectively. S. O'Connell was high man for the losers, scoring two of their six markers.

Stan Ross refereed.

Montreal Shotmaker Eliminates Victoria Southpaw in Morning Play—Three Americans and Sandy Somerville Move Into Quarter-Finals —Ven Savage Meets Champion Today

By W. R. WHEATLEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Ont., July 28 (CP).—Fate of Canada's 1938 amateur golf championship rested tonight in the hands of Ross Somerville and three challengers from the United States.

Two eighteen-hole rounds brought a heavy toll among the Canadian challengers and left only the champion in the fight against a strong trio who seek to carry the title across the border.

An all-American semi-final tomorrow finds Ted Adams, twenty-one-year-old player from Columbia, Mo., against Ed Kingsley, twenty-three-year-old shotmaker from Salt Lake City, Utah.

From Salt Lake City also comes Sandy Somerville's opponent, Ven Savage, who at twenty-eight, is five years younger than Somerville.

Though the opposition was 3 to 1 in cold numbers, the golfing faithful who have roamed the Hunt Club course all week, players and gallerites alike, said "Sandy is still the man to beat."

SANDY TRIUMPHS

In his two rounds today Sandy was never extended, but played his usual sound game. He eliminated young Jimmy Hogan, of Jasper, Alta., in the morning, 5 and 4, and came through in the afternoon with a 7-6 win over Larry Bissell, of London Thames Valley Club.

Bissell, public links champion of Western Ontario and playing in his first Canadian championship tournament pulled off the big upset of the day by defeating Gordon Baxter Taylor, of Montreal, 2 and 1.

Savage moved out of the morning round by turning back Gordon Taylor, Jr., of Toronto, 4 and 3. In the afternoon it was Johnny Richardson, of Calgary, who became the victim of the American's steady play. Savage won by 6 and 5, playing a sub par 34 on the out nine.

Richardson, who won from Pete Kelly, maritime pro hockey player, 5 and 3, in the morning, was the second Albertan to reach the quarter finals. Bobby Procter, winner of Dick Lutz, of Ashland, Ohio, in the morning, met Kingsley in the afternoon. The Utah boy, one down at the turn, caught Procter when he faltered, and went on to win, 3 and 2.

On the back nine Bobby was wild and was over par at five of the seven holes before the match ended.

Ted Adams won his morning round, 2 and 1, over Allan Boes, of Winnipeg. Adams had to wipe out a hole lead in order to get through to the quarter finals.

TODD DEFEATED

Phil Farley, of Montreal, made the turn three up over Jimmy Todd, of Victoria. Both were over par, Phil with a 38 that included a seven on the third hole, and Jimmy Todd with a 40.

Farley took the second, where Todd went one over par. On the third Farley went into a creek and took three putts when he got on the green. Todd himself was one over par. Phil took the fourth, seventh and ninth, halving the others.

Farley took another two holes from Todd and moved into the quarter finals with a 5 and 4 victory.

Farley, in	445	43
Todd, out	445	535	545	40

FOURTH ROUND

Phil Farley, Montreal Marlborough, defeated Jimmy Todd, Victoria, 5 and 4.

Ed Kingsley, Salt Lake City, defeated Ernie Palmer, Winnipeg, 6 and 4.

Ven Savage, Salt Lake City, defeated Gordon Taylor, Jr., Toronto Summit, 4 and 3.

Ted Adams, Columbia, Mo., defeated Allan Boes, Winnipeg, 2 and 1.

Ross Somerville, London Hunt, defeated Jim Hogan, Jasper, Alta., 5 and 4.

L. B. Bissell, London Thames Valley, defeated Gordon B. Taylor, Montreal Marlborough, 2 and 1.

Bobby Procter, Edmonton, defeated Dick Lutz, Ashland, Ohio, one up.

Johnny Richardson, Calgary, defeated Pete Kelly, Charlottetown, 4 and 3.

QUARTER-FINAL

Ted Adams, Columbia, Mo., defeated Phil Farley, Montreal Marlborough, one up.

Ed Kingsley, Salt Lake City, defeated Bobby Procter, Edmonton, Alta., 3 and 2.

Ross Somerville, London Hunt, defeated Larry Bissell, London Thomas Valley, 7 and 6.

Ven Savage, Salt Lake City, defeated Johnny Richardson, Calgary, 6 and 4.

PIRATE PITCHER OUT OF LINE-UP

PHILADELPHIA, July 28 (AP).—Booming Bob Klinger, the Missouri rookie whose pitching performances have helped make National League pacemakers out of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was shelved temporarily tonight with a sore arm.

Manager Pie Traynor disclosed the big righthander, who has won eight games and lost two, would not be able to take his regular turn tomorrow when the Buccaneers invade Brooklyn on the second stop of their eastern swing.

The Pirates, who have won twenty-three of their last twenty-nine games and haven't lost two in succession since June 5 and 6, regard their eastern road trip as a critical stage in their pennant chase.

Sport Fishing on Vancouver Island

Salmon Run Has Apparently Begun on East Coast of Vancouver Island—Indications Point to Good Season for Coho —Publicity Commissioner Hooks Silver Button Fish

By SID THOMAS

Reports reaching us from Up-Island points indicate that the salmon run has apparently begun all up the East Coast of the Island, and good catches have been made at Comox, Qualicum and Parksville. Bluebacks and springs are being hooked and more and bigger fish can be expected this week.

Saanich Inlet, favored rendezvous of visiting and local anglers, has a number of the boys puzzled. Last week some really fine catches were made, and while many sportsmen were not quite so successful this week, those closely associated with the game insist that the salmon are there. Some express the opinion that the fish are feeding off the fingerlings and refusing to be "hooked."

• • •

However, while hard luck seems to pursue a greater number of the fishermen, there are those who have been more fortunate. Take the case of that popular angler and the man who has landed more button fish than any other member of the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers' Association, Frank "Doc" Smith. "Doc" seems to have no difficulty making excellent catches. He added to his impressive list this week.

• • •

Another champion angler and a man who is known for his piscatorial ability is Len Holyoak, of the fishing Holyoaks. Len caught his thrill-giving fish — a thirty-four-pounder—last week, and on Wednesday of this week landed twelve salmon from the Saanich Inlet. The two largest weighed twenty-two and twenty-one pounds, respectively, while some of the others weighed between seventeen and eighteen pounds. Catches such as this certainly indicate that the salmon are in the inlet. Perhaps Mr. Holyoak can be induced to unfold his "success" story to us who are less fortunate. How about it, Len?

George I. Warren, Victoria's publicity commissioner, whose job it is to sell Vancouver Island, is an ardent fisherman, and in his spare moments likes to do a little fishing at Brentwood. George went out the other evening with a song in his heart, and a lucky night it was. Before our friend, Mr. Warren, had time to let out his full line he made a strike. The salmon fought, Mr. Warren tugged, and in about twenty minutes a thirty-pound four-ounce fish was in the boat. The catch will entitle Victoria's publicity commissioner to the silver button presented by the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers' Association.

Here are some of the catches made at Brentwood during the week: Lanai Hardy, twenty-one and one-half pounds, twenty and one-half pounds; Bill Campbell, twenty-one and one-half pounds; Bill Rowe, twenty-seven pounds, eighteen and one-half pounds; Charlie Tubbs, twenty-one pounds; Frank "Doc" Smith, fourteen fish, the biggest weighing twenty-eight and twenty-four pounds; Fred Greenhaulh, seven salmon, the largest weighing thirty-eight pounds; Bill Thorne, six fish, four cohoe and two springs; Dr. Ledingham, Seattle, twenty-five pounds, and Tom Sumner, a limit catch of grilse.

Cohoe fishing will be good this year, according to the catches being made at present. Those who have been associated with the game for many years inform us that the fish should be plentiful and should provide excellent sport.

• • •

As anglers prepare for their regular week-end fishing trips, we would like to leave them with this thought: "There are salmon at Brentwood, and while they are hard to get, the catches reported above definitely indicate that they can be taken. It's your party. Go to it, boys."

Giants Smash Three Homers and Defeat Victoria Ball Nine

Hand All-Stars 11-5 Setback—Jons and Knucredi Hit for Four Bases—Sparkling Catches by Dunc and Rusto—Play Here Next Week

MANAGER Jerry Goodwin's touring African Zulu Giants chalked up their twenty-sixth straight victory last night when they defeated the Victoria All-Star ball tossers, 11-5, in the second and final game of their exhibition series at the Royal Athletic Park. Another bumper crowd, estimated at 2,300 fans witnessed the ball clubs in action.

Little Prince Rusto, who had the fans in an uproar Wednesday evening, stole the show again last night, and when he wound up his evening's performance on the pitching mound the fans were highly amused. A great showman playing his fourth season with the club, Rusto has a number of entertaining "acts" and had the fans laughing at his every move.

Victoria All-Stars, managed by Bill Bridgewood, turned in a much better performance last night and made a number of good plays. They showed lots of hustle and for five innings were really in the ball game.

THREE HOMERS

Aided by three circuit clouts, two by Jons, second sacker, in successive times at bat, and another by Knucredi, first baseman, the Cannibals set up a 5-2 lead in the first five innings. Jons hit his first homer in the opening frame, and his second in the third inning. Knucredi's four-base knock also came in the third session. All three balls were hard hit and cleared the Pembroke Street fence and landed on the other side of the road.

Two sparkling catches in the outer gardens, one at right field by Little Prince Rusto, and another in the opposite pasture by Steve Dunc, Victoria fly-shagger, drew the well-merited applause of the fans. Dunc had to race right back to the fence and pick off the ball at a hard angle.

Lulu, who plays on the initial bag, did the hurling for the touring nine, and was nicked for seven safeties in six frames. He breezed nine. Prince Rusto pitched the last inning and yielded two hits.

Lloyd Cann turned in a good performance on the hillock for Victoria, and except for the sixth session, when the Giants bunched six hits for a like number of runs, kept the bingles well scattered. He fanned four.

COMING BACK

More than satisfied with the support accorded his club by the Victoria fans, Manager Jerry Goodwin has agreed to bring the African Zulu Giants back next Thursday for another game. The fixture will be played at the Royal Athletic Park commencing at 6 o'clock, and Prince Rusto, the showman of the club, will go to the mound at the start of the game.

Score:

Giants	112	106	0—11
Victoria	000	201	2— 5

Batteries: Lulu, Prince Rusto and Maccam; Cann and Bridgewood.

Umpires: Redgrave and Renfree.

YOUNG CITIZENS DEFEAT CLUBMEN

Register 8-6 Victory Over Northwestern Club in Softball Play-Downs

Turning back the Northwestern Athletic Club, 8-6, for their second straight triumph, Young Citizens' League softballers, "D" section champions, last night marched into the semi-finals of the city championship play-downs. They will now meet the winners of the Colwood Wood-Young Liberals for the right to battle the "A" section rulers.

Held scoreless for four frames, Young Citizens brought their heavy artillery into action in the fifth inning and sent five runners scampering over the home plate and assumed a 5-3 lead. In their half of the same frame the clubbers drove across the tying runs, but the eventual winners came back with a pair of tallies in the sixth and stayed in front for the remainder of the keenly-fought game.

Score:

	R.
Northwestern Club	110 121 000—6
Young Citizens	000 052 01x—8

Batteries — A. McBride and J. Tillyer; Perkins and Oakley.

Trailing by eight runs at the end of the second inning, Bert Waude's women's league softballers came from behind to defeat the Hollywood Club, 21-19, in a free-scoring fixture.

NO AUTO RACES

With American racing cars not being available, Manager Jack Taylor, of the Langford Speedway, has decided to postpone the next race meeting until Saturday, August 6. On that date leading United States pilots and their machines will be here for another interesting international programme.

Dick Bennett and Hank Prusoff to Compete in City

Ron Sidaway and Jimmy Bardsley will represent Jericho Tennis Club, while Russ Hawes and Jack Brawn will compete for Vancouver Tennis Club.

The Seattle entry of Dick Bennett and Henry Prusoff will be one of the most formidable in the meet.

Motors Provide Rallying Power On Wall Street

NEW YORK, July 28 (AP).—Motor stocks provided rallying power for today's market, and leading issues on average got back nearly half their losses in Wednesday's slide.

Demand for railroad issues gave the bond market a recovery tinge today.

Foreign loans were narrow. The Associated Press average of ten issues at 62.2 was .1 higher. On the first sale since the German seizure of Austria, Lower Austria Province 7 1-2's were down 74 3-4 points at 24 1-4, on one transaction. U.S. Treasury loans were slightly higher.

WHEAT FUTURES BECOME FIRMER

WINNIPEG, July 28 (CP).—Reflecting reports of lack of moisture in dry Saskatchewan areas and a fair export business, Winnipeg wheat prices were firm today.

July fluctuated above and below yesterday's close. Quotations today were 3-8 higher to 1-8 lower, with July at 93 3-8, October 76 1-8, November 75 5-8 and December 74 1-8. Export business was estimated at 200,000 bushels. Most operations were quiet.

Rust and drought damage in Southeastern and Southwestern Saskatchewan gave a bullish tinge to the market, and the weather map showed only light showers.

Short coverings appeared in the July at Liverpool, while the deferred months made little headway. Prices closed 3d higher to 1-4d lower. Buenos Aires slid 3-4 down.

Fair demand for durums featured cash wheat trade. Spreads were 1-2 better on durums.

Pit trade in coarse grains was dull, with fair buying in barley supplying most action.

APPOINTMENT IS MADE BY BOARD

At a meeting of the Esquimalt School Board, last evening, Miss Isobel Simpson, formerly a teacher at the Fairbridge Farm School, was appointed domestic science teacher for the elementary grades at Lampson Street School. It was decided to advertise for another high school teacher, as a large attendance is expected in the Fall.

Applications will also be received for two substitute teachers for Lampson Street School for the term of September to December.

The board decided to extend manual training and domestic science to Grade 9, upon the resumption of classes. Overhauling of the lighting facilities at Lampson Street School was brought up for consideration and will be dealt with.

A benevolent old man entered the village inn on Boxing Day. He chatted with the innkeeper for a few moments and then said: "By the way, a poor fellow came to me yesterday morning and said he was starving. I sent him to you and told him to have a good meal at my expense. Did he turn up?"

"Yes, that's right, sir," said the innkeeper.

"How much do I owe you, then?"

"A dollar."

"A dollar! He must have had a tidy-sized meal for that. What did he have?"

"Five pints of beer and a packet of cigarettes."

HEIL HITLER!

"When your child first began to speak, did he say 'daddy' or 'mummy'?"

"'Adolph,' of course."

REPORT NEW FIRE OUT OF CONTROL

Flames Running Over More Than Eight Hundred Acres in Port Haney District

PORT HANEY, July 28 (CP).—A forest fire which broke out in this Fraser Valley area late today and spread over more than 800 acres, was running in a northeasterly direction out of control.

British Columbia police said 125 men were fighting the fire, which already had consumed considerable timber. It covered an area about a mile and a quarter long and a mile wide, one mile east of the settlement of Webster's Corner, and was running one quarter of a mile from and parallel to the Dewdney Trunk Road.

Police said the fire, which broke out in slashings on an old logged-over area and then raced into the timber, was continuing to spread despite efforts of fire fighters.

A Japanese-owned logging operation and mill was in the path of the blaze.

Steve Dunc Hit By Pitched Ball; Goes to Hospital

HIT in the back of the head with a pitched ball in the sixth frame of the ball game between the touring African Zulu Giants and the Victoria All-Stars, Steve Dunc, lanky outfielder, spent last night as a patient in the St. Joseph's Hospital. Dunc was removed to the institution suffering from concussion, but at a late hour last night Dr. A. D. Bechtel, attending physician, stated his injuries were not serious. It was felt advisable to keep him at the hospital overnight for observation. He will be discharged today.

"Am I late?" he asked, taking possession of Eve's hand. "But Mr. Tilford, I'm meeting Phil—Mr. Carver." Her voice stuck in her throat. "I tried to tell you—You left in such a hurry—"

That's what happened to Eve March, when she got the urge to change her mode of living.

Eve wanted just a taste of the things she had always dreamed about . . . swell clothes, swanky clubs, rich people . . . But when finally her dreams came true, Eve made an about face fast, to real living—

LIFE'S LIKE THAT - By Fred Neher

"We're Givin' It Away to the Person Asking the Sanest Question This Week."

Jane Dixon Says:

YOUNG BRIDE SHOULD ARRANGE HOME IN HARMONY WITH OWN IDEAS, NOT FUTURE MOTHER-IN-LAW'S

Problems cannot be shrugged off the shoulders. The easiest way to rid ourselves of them is to face them and keep thumping away until we find the solution.

Pick: If the boy does not love you enough to respect himself and your wishes, there is nothing you can do about it except to "call the whole thing off" and place it on a friendship basis. You cannot force him to conduct himself according to your code. It is very foolish for young people to bind themselves with promises they are not prepared to keep. Neither of you should exact a promise of single devotion from the other until you are ready to take on the serious obligations of life. Tell the boy you do not like the company he keeps, or his deceptions, and that unless he stops short, he must remain your friend at a distance.

Bride-to-Be: Tell your fiance's mother that you appreciate her interest in the home you are readying for the honeymoon, that you are grateful for her help and her advice, but that you have definite ideas of your own about colors and furnishings. Explain to her gently but firmly that since it is to be your home, you prefer to arrange it in harmony with your own ideas. The time to slow up outside interference in the new life is now. Nothing can destroy young married happiness so swiftly and so completely as a boss-mother-in-law.

Young Man in a Stew—The next time the young woman calls you at your place of business ask her courteously but in no uncertain words not to intrdue on your working hours. Persons who refuse to take a hint, however broad, must be "told off." Since you are not interested in the offender, it would be better to tell her off than to go on infuriating your employer.

Fuddled Father: Your wife's refusal to correct or to discipline your children leaves the task squarely up to you. Failure to give them proper parental guidance in their youth will bring them to many an unfortunate, even tragic mistake for which they will blame you and their mother. A mother who indulges her children to their detriment is selfish and she is unworthy the noble task entrusted to her.

TO HAVE THE "BLUES"

Low spirits, melancholia, despondency—these are an old story, as old as human and, perhaps, even animal life.

Old enough also—several centuries—is the characterization for such a gloomy state as the "blues," which our great-grandparents called "blue devils."

That the word "blue" should be used here is natural; for it is as the application of a physical condition to its mental counterpart that we have the term in its figurative significance.

Blue is the name of the livid, leaden color of the skin of a person suffering from exposure to severe cold, lowered vitality, great fear or alarm.

The feeling, of course, is depressing, dismal, dreary. We hope our explanation for the nomeclature isn't.

LEGION COUNCIL HOLDS MEETING

Central Grave Plot for Veterans at Colwood Burial Park Discussed By Branch Representatives

Plans were discussed for purchase of a large plot in the Colwood Burial Park, in which 500 graves of returned soldiers could be permanently established and cared for, at a meeting of the Victoria and district zone council of the Canadian Legion in the Orange Hall at Saanichton last night.

Purpose of the site was to facilitate marking and future care of the graves, Acting Secretary H. L. Butteris announced. A further suggestion that temporary markers be raised over the graves of all veterans until such a time as more permanent memorials could be erected was also introduced to the meeting.

Further resolutions to be submitted to the annual convention of the British Columbia command of the Canadian Legion were discussed by representatives from the various legion branches. A complete list of local delegates who will attend the parley, which will be held in Vancouver from August 4 to 6, has not yet been issued.

A letter from the Victoria council will be sent to the Courtenay branch of the legion today by Secretary C. A. Gill to determine to what extent the Victoria Legion branches can be of assistance in aiding the fire victims in that area.

Announcement was made at the end of the business session that R. Hale, chief pension adjustment officer for the Canadian Legion at Ottawa, would arrive in Victoria on September 13 for a three-day stay here. Mr. Hale makes an annual tour of all legion branches.

Don't Keep on Having Constipation!

If constipation's got you down—so you feel heavy, tired and dopey—it's time you did something about it. And something more than taking a physic! You should get at the cause of the trouble. . .

If you eat only the things most people do, the chances are that a very simple fact causes your constipation—you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean heavy food. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.

If this is your trouble, eat crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast every day and drink plenty of water. All-Bran is not only rich in "bulk"—it also contains the natural intestinal tonic, vitamin B_1.

Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario. Sold by every grocer.

ENTERTAINMENT WELL RECEIVED

Golden Dragon Theatre Presents "The Thrice Promised Bride" at Concert

A programme of great variety, ending with "The Thrice Promised Bride," a Chinese play dating back to the fourteenth century, was presented by the Chinese-Canadian Youth Forum before a large and enthusiastic audience which filled the auditorium of the Victoria High School last evening. The entertainment was given in aid of the war refugees in China.

The address of welcome was given by Very Rev. Spencer Elliott, Dean of Columbia. Mun Hope, an officer of the forum, spoke a few words and later in the evening the consul-general for China, Mr. Pao, Vancouver, was introduced by Dean Elliott. The consul-general had come from the Mainland for the special purpose of attending the concert and he was given a hearty welcome.

LION DANCE

The programme opened with the spectacular lion dance by Jack Tang and Young Wah, whose fantastic antics on the stage were extended to the main auditorium, the "lion" gyrating and dancing its way up and down the aisles, being greeted by enthusiastic applause.

Bessie Hope, talented Victoria artist, appeared in a delightful song number, "Love Walked In," this being followed by an amusing duologue, "How to Write a Scenario," by Archie MacCorkindale and Joni McLaren. Phillip Chan played a violin solo, "Gavotte," from "Mignon," Miss Kathleen Irvine as accompanist.

Winnie Ngan appeared in a toe dance; Joni McLaren, Christopher Frere and Archie MacCorkindale gave an amusing "cauliflower ballet," which evoked shouts of delight from the younger members of the audience, and Mabel Chan and Gladys Chan were heartily applauded in their piano duets. Bessie Hope, wearing a beautiful Chinese costume, gave a tap dance and a comedy tap number was contributed by Margaret Mar. Little Cordelia Lee was loudly applauded for her recitations, and Muriel Thompson sang a solo, "I Love the Moon."

A short playlet, "Ah," in which this was the only word spoken, the variety of tone conveying worlds of meaning, was given by the Progressive Arts Club. Mabel Wong contributed a Russian dance; Robert Lindgren a pierrot dance; Phyllis Beschizza and Lorne Ritchie provided splendid entertainment with their acrobatic number, one of the outstanding items of the programme, and "Murder at the Microphone" was cleverly presented by Christopher Frere, Tom Wylie and Pat Fairweather.

CHINESE PLAY

Then followed "The Thrice Promised Bride." This play, written by Cheng-Chin-Hauing, was directed by Archie MacCorkindale, and the costumes were specially worthy of note. Beautiful embroideries, gorgeous silks and satins, elaborate headdresses and careful attention to every detail of the production were characteristics which will make it long remembered among Victoria's dramatic performances. The part of the magistrate was played by Joni McLaren; first attendant, May Lee; second attendant, Daisy Lee; secretary, Mun Hope; the knight, Jack Tang; the merchant, Herbert Chan Dune; the matchmaker, Bessie Hope; the mother, Dora Hope; the bride, Ruth Lee; the old man, William Chow; the beggar scholar, Maurice Chan, and the property man, Albert Yuen.

The greatest possible credit is due to Archie MacCorkindale for his part as director, as well as to the performers, and Victoria audiences may look for even better things from this newly formed dramatic group, The Golden Dragon Theatre, in time to come.

During the intermission, the Warncliff Trio played appropriate musical selections.

BASEBALL FILM SHOWN TO CLUB

Rotarians and Visitors Enjoy General Motors of Canada "Batter Up"

The feature of the Rotary Club luncheon meeting yesterday in the Empress Hotel was the showing of the film, "Batter Up," provided through the courtesy of the General Motors of Canada, which proved a most interesting programme. Actual moving pictures of the big league baseball games in progress were shown, and in addition by the use of slow-motion pictures, the details from the standpoint of the pitcher, the batter and the various incidents of base running were all presented, giving the spectator the inside information relative to play.

Included in this there was shown the duties of the umpire, who has to interpret the rules and whose eye must judge to the fractions of a second the relative motions of the players, especially in base running.

Pictures of Connie Mack were shown, with talks by him on various aspects of baseball and introductions by him of team managers and players of note. In addition the views of many managers and players on various sides of the great game were given, with talks by them on playing points. The off season occupations of the famous managers and players in the league teams were displayed among the scenes offered at the close of the series of playing pictures.

Douglas Flintoff was warmly thanked by G. Hamilton Harman, president of the club, for his assistance in the presentation of the pictures.

Quite a number of visitors, at the invitation of members of the Rotary Club, attended the showing of the film which was heartily enjoyed by all.

CHAPTER XXIX

Mr. and Mrs. Sunny Tucker were entertaining at Sunday dinner in their new house in Douglaston.

"Fancy," Mignon sighed, "an old married couple of one year! You've borne up wonderfully, Sunny, what with acquiring a wife, a son, and fame and fortune all in twelve months!"

Jed grinned broadly.

"Dog my cats, if he hasn't now! Still smilin', too."

Moleen, bending over the crib of Jed Patrick Tucker, clapped her hands.

"He—smiled, Daddy! Truly he did!"

Sunny hurried to the crib.

"No foolin'? I think you imagined it. Do they smile when they're only three weeks old?"

"Let's let the godmother decide this momentous question." Mignon joined the parents.

"I'm a better judge, maybe," Jed drawled drily, "with nine brothers and sisters."

He stroked his chin. Young Jed made another grimace.

"See! I told you," Moleen said excitedly.

"I hate to disillusion you," Jed grinned, "but it looks like a little touch of colic to me."

"Shame on you," Mignon laughed. "Have you no imagination?"

Moleen sighed happily.

"Wouldn't it be wonderful," she put her arms around her beaming husband, "if every year of our lives could be like this one?"

"And why can't it be?" Mignon picked up the baby's hand and kissed it. "Of course, the excitement of being the most sought after band maestro in the country is bound to wear off some day."

"We've got to realize, sooner or later," Jed broke in, "that another dog will have our day. But I'm not letting that worry me now."

"You shouldn't." Moleen smiled. "Starring in a Broadway show—two hit pictures this year. No matter who comes along, the old-timers will always look back and remember when Jed Patrick was the Gentleman Hillbilly on Broadway and Sunny Tucker's the greatest swing band in the country."

Sunny bent over, his hand on his back.

"Yes, by cracky, them was the good old days!"

"It—all happened so suddenly," Molly smiled dreamily. "Everything—was so strange—as if it were all a pattern that had to be worked out. I ran into Jed's arms in a doorway in a storm. Mignon picked me up in Central Park when I was ill. We took Jed out to meet Sunny and Minnie made him ask Jed to sing."

There was no mention of Charlie Farro, although for a few seconds a small cloud came between them.

Molly said suddenly, "Jed, come out and let me show you the garden. I—I want to talk to you."

He looked down at her, surprised.

"Dirty work afoot," Sunny grinned after them.

"Shush." Mignon picked up the baby. "Now I have a chance to hold the infant. Don't you tell Molly."

"Help yourself," Sunny offered proudly. "I don't imagine he'll break."

Watching her, Sunny's face sobered.

"Minnie," he looked down at the lovely blonde girl with the baby in her arms, "you ought to have a dozen."

"I—I'd love to, Sunny," she sighed softly. "But I guess I never will."

Sunny walked over to the window. Molly and Jed were sitting on a bench among the roses.

Jed grinned affectionately.

"Well, what have I done now, Molly?"

"It—isn't what you've done, Jed," Molly looked away, "it's what you haven't done."

"Well, now suppose you tell me what it is, and maybe I'll do something about it."

What Moleen had to say wasn't so easy. If Jed really weren't in love with Minnie, it would be embarrassing. Suddenly she plunged.

"Tell me, Jed," she put her small hand over his, "do you care for Mignon?"

Jed was taken completely by surprise. He dropped his head.

"I—what good would it do me if I did love her?" His voice sounded strained.

"That's not answering me," Molly said firmly. "Do you or don't you?"

Jed looked up. Moleen was shocked at the pain in his eyes.

"As long as I live," he said miserably, "there'll never be anyone for me but Mignon."

"Then," Molly flared at him, "why in the name of goodness don't you tell her so? You idiot!"

Jed shook his head.

"I've wanted to—a hundred times. But what would she want with a hillbilly like me?"

Moleen sighed. "You crazy man! Do you want her to die with a broken heart? Can't you see she has gone around for a year with her heart on her sleeve, waiting for you to see it? Oh, Jed, you're such a fool."

Jed looked incredulous.

"No—foolin'? Do you really think she'd have me? That the district attorney would give his consent?"

"Tom Laine would be tickled to death to have you for a son-in-law, you big silly." Moleen gave him a little shove. "He told me so. I'm going to send Mignon down here, and if she doesn't come back engaged, you can just go home without your dinner."

Mignon was putting little Jed back in his crib when Moleen walked in the door.

"Caught," Sunny smiled guiltily. "But I told her I didn't think she'd damage him just this once."

"Aunt Minnie may hold him all she likes." Moleen reached up and kissed the surprised Miss Laine. "Jed would like to see you in the garden, honey."

Mignon hurried out. Sunny tilted his lovely wife's chin and searched her eyes.

"Mommy! What have you been up to, holding hands with that man down in the garden?"

Molly led him to the window.

"You'll see." She hugged her spouse rapturously.

Down in the garden Mignon walked into Jed's waiting arms.
